SENATE PEACE STAND TO GIVE WORLD ITS CUE

Fate of Post-War Plans at Stake.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17.—The forthcoming consideration of peace plans by the senate is expected to be attended by varied and far reaching national, international, and domestic political repercussions. Among them are the following:

1. The roll calls on the Connally resolution and amendments will indicate the relative popular strength of the internationalists who advocate an all-powerful international agency with an international police force to enforce peace, and the nationalists who stand for international coöperation without impairment of American sovereignty to check aggression.

2. The votes will indicate for the enlightenment of all concerned, including other nations, the character of the peace plan that would be assured the approval of the two-thirds of the senate, constitutionally required for the ratification of a treaty embodying such international agreement.

Willkie Faces Test.

3. A test of the popular support of Wendell Willkie as a candidate for President will be discerned by the politicians in the fate of the amendment representing his views which proposes an organization of the allied powers armed with military force to maintain peace.

4. The debate will have a bearing upon the tripartite conference at Moscow, if still in progress, it being the purpose of Prime Minister Churchill and President Roosevelt to dissuade Dictator Josef Stalin of Russia from annexing neighboring nations ostensibly for security by demonstrating that America as well as Britain is ready to underwrite the peace of Europe.

White Book to Be Aired.

5. Due for an airing in the debate are the state department white book designed to justify the Roosevelt policies in the decade before the war and the suppressed documents which might shed a wholly different light upon the administration record.

Feeling is already approaching the melting point on the eve of the first round of the fight this week in the senate foreign relations committee when the supporters of the Ball-Burton-Hatch-Hill resolution will seek the revision of the Connally compromise resolution so as to espouse the international agency and police force.

Showdown Coming.

The internationalists are shouting that the showdown is going to demonstrate how many isolationists there are left in the country. The nationalists are countering with the cry that the internationalists would draft American boys to die fighting in foreign quarrels of no concern to the United States.

If the internationalists should succeed in procuring the adoption of their plan to preserve peace thru an allied police force, Willkie's Presidential candidacy would receive an incalculable impetus, particularly if the amendment should receive the support of a majority of the Republican senators. The event would be hailed by Willkie as evidence that the country and the Republican

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Sen. Ralph Brewster.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17.—Sen. Ralph O. Brewster [R., Me.] said today in an interview that he considered it "unfortunate" that President Roosevelt should refer to congressional discussions evoked by reports from him and his four senatorial colleagues on their 40,000 mile trip to American war fronts as a "damn nuisance."

"This does not affect our determination to see that waste and ineptitude in the conduct of the war, the neglect of American interests in lend-lease expenditures and overreaching of the United States by the British are thoroly explored," Brewster said.

"I appreciate the publicity given us in the last three Presidential conferences, altho apparently the President spoke without accurate reports of statements we made, for which, as far as I know, he never asked.

Can't Laugh It Off.

"Whether or not we wasted our time, whether or not our trip is going to pay dividends to the American public must be determined by future developments and not by any attempt to laugh it off by referring to us as 'fellow travelers,' by which I assume he meant Mrs. Roosevelt, who joined us on the circuit of the South Pacific.

"The British irritation at our discussion is difficult to understand because our criticism has been directed not at the British for looking out for themselves but at the failures of our own government to look after American interests as a result of our inadequate representation on the diplomatic front and in the other civilian agencies now active in the foreign fields.

"The British got us all wrong—we think they are doing a magnificent job. They are in a beautiful position to move into the post-war world in which commercial air transport will play a highly significant part."

Wants U. S. to Do as Well.

Sen. Brewster said he had in mind the benefits accruing to the British thru American development of huge air fields all over the world, many of which apparently will be reserved exclusively for British use.

"My hope is to see America do as well," he said.

Sen. Brewster enlarged upon his report that American oil reserves are being depleted rapidly to supply the British when they could just as well be getting more oil from their own fields along the Persian gulf. He said the oil question first "came to our attention in the Mediterranean thru American military and naval authorities." He related how these authorities claimed they had sent a tanker to the Persian gulf for oil and it had "never come back." The British had "taken it over," they explained.

Information from British.

Having lost one tanker on a trip to what would have been a more "efficient" source of oil, he said, the Americans "didn't dare send any more tankers" because they "couldn't afford to lose them that way."

"When we got to the Persian gulf we took the matter up there," Brewster continued. "Our information there came from the British authorities in charge. The British manager of the refinery told us that it would be possible to increase the output of refined products by about 40 per cent with existing facilities. The refinery is one of the largest in the world."

Sen. Brewster said the British manager informed him there was "no limit" on the amount of crude oil that could be produced. He said this information was gathered in August and "reported home at once with recommendations that steps be taken."

He said the senators had been given "the whole story" about it being a shorter haul from the United States than from Persia but now "with the Mediterranean clear-

Japan Girds for Long War; 'Buys' Big Mitsubishi Firm

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17 (AP).—Japan's people are being welded by strong-arm administrators into a single war machine for the coming death struggle with America.

The great financial and industrial house of Mitsubishi is the latest Japanese institution to come under what is apparently complete control of Premier Gen. Hideki Tojo's war administration in its sweeping reorganization of Japanese government and economic life.

A German Transocean Agency broadcast picked up today said industrial subsidiaries owned by Mitsubishi have been ordered to double their capital and sell half their stock to the government. That means that by printing the money to pay for the new stock issue, the government will acquire control.

Students Are Drafted.

The government canceled draft deferments for students and for the hundreds of thousands of Japanese who have flocked to China and other occupied areas to escape military service.

Coreans and Formosans, hitherto regarded by the Japanese as untrustworthy, are to be conscripted. A list of occupations to be filled only by women has been promulgated.

The vast Mitsubishi enterprises, shipbuilding, steel, aircraft, will come under a radical reorganization program. One trend is a dispersal of vital factories, some of which are being moved to Manchuria and China, to lessen damage from American bombs.

Hoshino Brains of Strategy.

Mainspring in this strategy is a young politician, Naoki Hoshino, chairman of Tojo's cabinet planning board and formerly economic dictator of Manchuria, who has long claimed that the empire's center of gravity is now on the continent.

He greatly expanded Manchurian industry in the years he controled it.

Mitsubishi will expand production of machine tools and will operate a monopoly of the aluminum industry. It will make duraluminum for airplanes and will build magnesium plants for the same purpose.

It is assumed here that the other 10 or so big Japanese financial houses also will come under full control of the government.

See German Collapse

MORMUGAO, Portuguese India, Oct. 17 (AP).—Japanese officials expect that Germany will collapse, but say the war will continue for five years after that, a Chilean correspondent for Imparcial of Santiago, returning home on the exchange ship Teia Maru, asserted today.

The correspondent said the official Japanese position was that the German collapse would not affect the Japanese greatly, because Japan was prepared to stand alone. On the other hand, the Japanese feel that Germany's fate is greatly affected by Japan's moves.

The correspondent said the Japanese people still are convinced they will win the war. He said the Japanese had won the support of local populations in all parts of the captured territory except the Philippines.

NEW DELHI, India, Oct. 18 [Monday]—(AP).—Field Marshal Archibald Wavell, newly appointed viceroy of India, his family and staff, have arrived here, it was announced officially today. Wavell left England by plane on Oct. 11, the first viceroy ever to fly to India. Because the plane was to fly over much enemy patroled territory, his departure was attended by no ceremony.

"Make India Secure."

AN AIR BASE IN SOUTHERN ENGLAND—[Delayed]—(AP).—Before he took off on an air journey to India, Field Marshal Wavell acknowledged today that he faces a "big job." "But I shall do my best," he promised. "As I understand it, my work is first to make India secure politically and productive materially to help support Mountbatten's offensive. We must ensure that the country is a strong and safe base, above all else."

Novelist Romain Rolland in Concentration Camp

LONDON, Oct. 17 (AP).—Radio France at Algiers said today that Romain Rolland, 76-year-old French playwright, novelist, historian and Nobel prize winner, has been interned in a concentration camp.

TRIAL OF OAKES' KIN OPENS TODAY

NASSAU, Bahamas, Oct. 17 (AP).—Alfred De Marigny was reported confident of acquittal today on the eve of the opening of his trial before a blue ribbon jury, drawn from Nassau's upper classes, for the murder of his wealthy father-in-law, Harry Oakes.

"He feels sure of the outcome," said his 19 year old wife, Nancy, after an earlier visit to the prison cell where he has been confined since he was arrested July 9—the day after the multimillionaire's body was found in a bedroom of the rambling Oakes' estate, Westbourne.

Wife Shares Belief.

The slender, red haired girl conferred today with two experts in criminal investigation who have been employed by the defense—Raymond C. Schindler, private detective, and Leonarde Keeler, developer of a lie detector.

Meanwhile, Nassau was a-buzz over the most sensational trial in the history of the colony. There has been only one subject of conversation since Oakes, American born baronet, was beaten and left to die on a blazing bed.

First Testimony Today.

Attired in a red robe and wearing the traditional white wig, Chief Justice Oscar Bedford Daly will descend from his second floor chambers into the courtroom at 10:30 a. m. to signal the start of the long awaited trial. He will be preceded by a court crier bearing a staff.

The first order of business will be the reading of the formal murder charge to De Marigny, who for the first time will make a direct reply to the accusation with his plea—certain to be innocence.

Atty. Gen. Eric Hallinan has predicted that a jury can be selected within two hours, and he forecast that the first witnesses will take the stand Monday.

Arrest Ringleaders of Near Riot in Toronto

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 17.—Two ringleaders were arrested today in a near riot outside Ukrainian National Federation hall. Hundreds of supporters of the rival Ukrainian Labor-Farmer Temple association had gathered and attempted to block the entrance to the building. The disorder resulted when members of the federation, which formerly owned the hall, protested its use by the association. Police squads quelled the disturbance.

YANKS WIDEN FOOTHOLD ON VOLTURNO LINE

Nazis Give Up Most of Positions.

ALLIED HDQ., ALGIERS, Oct. 17 (AP).—Cracking strong German resistance in four days of heavy fighting, Americans and British of the 5th army have driven the enemy back from nearly all his positions on the Volturno river line and the British 8th army has pushed ahead all along its section of the Italian front, official reports said today.

A German retreat north of the Volturno was admitted by the Nazi high command which said in a broadcast that the allies attacked in the western sector of the front "where our posts had withdrawn."

"The 5th army has compelled the enemy to withdraw from the majority of his Volturno positions," said an allied bulletin from the headquarters of Gen. Eisenhower.

Fighting on Tierno River.

The bitterest fighting was raging along the Tierno river which winds thru rough country southwest from Cerreto and empties into the Volturno five miles above its confluence with the Calore river and four miles northwest of Amorosi.

German efforts to hold a few river line positions on the 16 mile sector of the Volturno from Capua to the Tyrrhenian sea were in danger of being pinched out.

On the west the Germans were threatened by British troops who, since their landings at the mouth of the Volturno, have consolidated positions along a canal which extends inland one to three or four miles north of the river.

[The Vichy radio, quoting German sources, said the allies had landed reenforcements north of the Volturno estuary.]

8th Army Pushes Westward.

The German bulletin said there was "embittered fighting" in the Capua and Campobasso areas where "temporary dents effected by the Anglo-Saxon forces were sealed off in counter-attacks made at night."

The 8th army continued its westward push all along the northeastern half of the allied line, with Nazi rearguards remaining behind for brisk clashes with Gen. Bernard L. Montgomery's advance patrols only when the terrain was decidedly favorable for defense.

The exact depth to which these patrols penetrated westward from the important road junction of Vinchiaturo was not disclosed, but the allied bulletin emphasized that the entire lateral highway from Termoli thru Campobasso to Vinchiaturo now was firmly in 8th army hands, and it was evident the patrols were stabbing toward the road and railway center of Isernia, 92 miles southeast of Rome.

Allies Build More Bridges.

Today's bulletin disclosed that additional bridges were being constructed and "strong forces of all arms are being passed across."

Light allied warships meanwhile ranged far up both sides of the Italian peninsula. British coastal units darted into Piombino channel between the Island of Elba and the west coast of Italy to sink two enemy vessels.

American Mitchells [B-25s] escorted by Lightning [P-38] fighters, struck at the important Ancona freight yards at the northern terminus of the east coast railway, one of the three most vital in all Italy.

In one attack yesterday, allied fighter-bombers forced the withdrawal of a mobile train gun which was interfering with the army's advance in the central sector. The gun had a range of 20,000 yards and had been hunted by airmen for several days.

Bomb Airdrome Near Rome.

R. A. F. Wellingtons last night flew thru a heavy rainstorm and ice to bomb the Casale airdrome, 10 miles north of Rome.

In the areas of Sparanise, Vairano, and Venafro immediately behind the battle front, American Mitchells and RAF Bostons [A-20s] and Baltimores ripped at the roads leading to Rome.

Pacing the 8th army's advance, fighters and fighter-bombers destroyed four trains and damaged two others between Ancona and Pescara.

Reds Ask Land for Bulgaria, Says Budapest

BY P. E. BRIQUET.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

GENEVA, Switzerland, Oct. 17.—Sweeping territorial concessions to Bulgaria, including a large section of Rumania and part of Greece to give the Bulgars a harbor on the Aegean, will be demanded of the allies by Russia at the three power parley which begins in Moscow this week, according to the Budapest newspaper Pester Lloyd.

The plan includes establishment of a common boundary between Russia and Bulgaria, at present separated by Rumania. This would force Rumania to cede the province of Dobrudja to Bulgaria and give the latter country an outlet to the Black sea.

See Communist Bulgaria.

Russia, the newspaper says, will demand of the allies that a free vote be taken in Bulgaria, which the Kremlin feels certain will be swept by communism, thus giving Russia the mastery of Bulgaria and command over the Balkans.

The Basler Nachrichten, one of the most important Swiss dailies, says this has been corroborated by the Bulgarian crisis Thursday and Turkish developments of the last few weeks. The paper stressed the long conversation between Bulgarian Premier Dobri Bojilov and the soviet minister to Sofia on Thursday, followed by the resignation of Sara Kirov, the Bulgarian foreign minister.

Kirov has been known as being anti-soviet and a strong supporter of Bulgarian friendship with Turkey, where he had many friends when he was minister to that country.

Demands Second Front.

MOSCOW, Oct. 17 (AP).—In an article entitled "Uncontestable Facts," Red Star's writer Ivan Yermashov, well known soviet commentator, said today that a decisive blow thru France by Russia's allies would bring about the swift defeat of Germany and a quick end to the war.

"A decisive blow from France," he wrote, after stating that the allies have 50,000,000 tons for transport shipping and noting the narrowness of the channel, "would immediately shake to their foundations the forces of Hitlerite Germany. Nothing else would be left except the distraction of part of Germany's troops from the east."

SOLDIER KILLED AS FAST TRAIN GOES OFF RAILS

Richmond, Va., Oct. 17 [Special].—At least five cars left the tracks tonight when the first section of a northbound Atlantic Coast Line train, the Havana Special, was derailed about 12 miles south of here.

A soldier aboard the train was killed and two nurses and six other service men injured. Extent of the damage to the derailed cars had not been learned.

Railroad officials asked that all available ambulances in Richmond be sent to the scene and arrangements were rushed in Richmond hospitals to handle a possibly large number of injured persons. The train, New York bound from Florida, was running about an hour late when the accident happened.

SHOOT DOWN 46 ENEMY CRAFT IN ONE BATTLE

Smash Foe's Effort to Take Initiative.

ALLIED HDQ. IN THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, Oct. 18 [Monday].—(AP).—A Japanese attempt to wrest the initiative from the allies in the Pacific air war has cost them 104 planes in a series of new battles. Ninety-two planes were destroyed in six air battles and 12 on the ground.

In addition 43 fighters and bombers were listed as damaged or probably destroyed.

A bulletin from Gen. MacArthur's headquarters which told of these heavy losses reported only two allied planes destroyed. Several were damaged.

Down 84 Over Guinea.

Eighty-four of the enemy planes were shot down over New Guinea and two fell before allied fighters over Vitiaz strait, which separates New Guinea from New Britain. Six were downed over Buin, on Bougainville Island in the northern Solomons.

A large group of Japanese dive bombers and fighters, attempting an attack on allied shipping and installations in Oro bay, was intercepted by allied fighters and was "virtually annihilated before any damage could be done," the bulletin said.

"Twenty-six bombers and 20 fighters were shot down and 11 other aircraft probably were destroyed," the bulletin said. "Some of our planes were damaged but all returned."

Hit Wewak Airdrome.

Nine Japanese fighters set upon a single heavy reconnaissance plane over Vitiaz strait. Two fell before the guns of the allied craft. The others escaped.

Escorted medium bombers executed low level attacks on the Wewak and Boram airdromes. Six enemy bombers and four fighters, parked in dispersal bays, were destroyed and 12 other bombers were destroyed or damaged. Direct hits silenced five anti-aircraft positions and a sixth gun was silenced by strafing.

"Numerous explosions and fires were observed in the dispersal and supply dump area," the bulletin said. "Twenty to thirty enemy fighters attempted interception and 16 were shot down, with three others probable. One of our planes was lost and a number damaged."

Five Barges Sunk.

Medium bombers, operating at night, attacked the airdrome and supply dumps at Gasmata, New Britain, starting a number of fires. At Cape Gloucester, at the western tip of New Britain, three Japanese bombers and four fighters were caught on the ground and probably destroyed or damaged.

Medium bombers, flying at minimum altitude, bombed and strafed ground installations at Madang and along the coast to Alexishafen. Thirty to 40 enemy planes intercepted and 16 were shot down and seven more probably destroyed. One allied plane was lost in this area and several others were damaged.

Five Bombers Downed.

Off Finschhafen allied fighters intercepted a formation of 15 enemy bombers and 12 fighters. Five bombers and a fighter were shot down and three other fighters were listed as probables.

Allied planes made a night attack on Buka in the Solomons, starting fires on the airdrome which were visible 40 miles away. Other bombers struck Kahili airdrome on Bougainville at midday, setting large fires. A pall of smoke covered the entire area and was visible 75 miles away. Six of 15 enemy fighters which intercepted were shot down.

Chicagoan Downs Plane.

SUGGEST FRANCE AND ITALY LEAD NEW LATIN BLOC

Spain Expected to Join Group Later.

SOUTHERN ITALY, Oct. 12 [Delayed] (AP).—Italy's union with France in a new international Latin bloc was urged today by a leading Italian newspaper in the Badoglio government zone with the implication that the house of Savoy might be discarded.

The front page editorial in La Gazzetta del Mezzogiorno, published in Bari, asserted that historical, military, and political reasons required "a confederation of France and Italy which in the course of time would include Spain."

Its context was approved by Premier Badoglio's chief military censor at Bari before publication.

The editorial did not mention the king and house of Savoy by name but the tone of the entire statement indicated Italians should allow no past loyalties to stand in the way of a political merger with republican France.

Quotes De Gaulle Speech.

As evidence the French might be agreeable to allow their erstwhile defeated enemies to join them in a supernational political union, the editorial quoted a speech by Gen. Charles de Gaulle at Ajaccio, Corsica, in which he promised to restore Italy "to liberty, not to odious servitude" and cited ties of "blood and culture" between the two peoples.

The newspaper also eulogized the pro-French attitude of Count Carlo Sforza, former Italian foreign minister and leader of the Free Italian movement, who had a conference with British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden in London recently after criticizing Prime Minister Churchill for supporting King Victor Emmanuel.

[Sforza, who recently left the United States, arrived in Algiers on Saturday en route to Italy for conferences with the Badoglio government.]

Badoglio Asks for Help.

ITALIAN HDQ. IN ITALY, Oct. 14 [Delayed]—(AP).—Premier Badoglio, whose Italian government has been recognized as a co-belligerent by leading allied nations, has said that "the allies must help us, in the press and in propaganda, so that communism does not stand a chance" in Italy. The declaration was made in an interview published today in the 8th Army News, a field newspaper for British troops.

Asked whether there is "danger of communism," Badoglio replied:

"After every war there is danger of communism. People are excited and overwrought after the distress of war. If conditions are too bad and they are without hope they turn to other presumed cures. Young men, trying to make political careers for themselves, go left rather than right.

"The left offers opportunities for quick rise. It appeals to passions which are predominant when people mentally are in a state of flux.

"The allies must help us in the press and in propaganda so that communism does not stand a chance. The Italian people are simple in mentality. They are individualists. Property is very evenly divided and we have a large proportion of small landholders. That is not ground for communism. The people can live on very little if necessary. In Naples they survived on vegetables and fruit."

Germans Fall Back in Italy

ALLIED BUILT PLANES ADDED TO PORTUGAL'S DEFENSE EQUIPMENT

LISBON, Portugal, Oct. 17 (AP).—Spitfires, Airacobras, and other allied-made planes manned by Portuguese crews appeared over Lisbon today as Portugal got set for its second full dress civil defense rehearsal. Barrage balloons and anti-aircraft artillery have been added to Lisbon's defenses, and British-made corvettes have been added to Portugal's fleet.

Portuguese people were calm on learning Germany had protested Portugal's accord with England whereby naval and air bases were granted in the Azores. A person closely attached to German circles in Lisbon said the German note contained no threats nor demands.

"Portuguese ships will have nothing to fear provided they sail unarmed and without convoy," the German-inspired informant declared. He added [without allied confirmation] that Angra do Heroismo in the Island of Terceira would be used as an allied naval base and Horta on the Island of Fayal would be used for allied aircraft.

TRIB-BUNA TIRE LEAVES IMPRINT IN FILM COLONY

BY HAL FOUST.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

The Chicago Tribune test car has been parked under the lights of the Cocoanut Grove entrance, at the Trocadero, and at the Mocambo. It took Hedda Hopper, former star and now an ace reporter, to the Brown Derby for lunch. It visited the jive session at the Palladium.

Greeted and Cheered.

The Chicago Tribune car has done Hollywood. The test crew has seen things and the synthetic tires have been places—even to an outlying tourist camp when hotels were filled. We've been greeted and cheered and even publicized with a three column picture and a column story in the Los Angeles Times.

We've been hailed in traffic by a girl in dark glasses in an open car. We were greeted at the Ambassador hotel by a cheerful naval lieutenant who told his friends, "Here's that tire test car running on ink, old newspapers, and lower case type."

Film Propaganda Opposed.

THE TRIBUNE has a lot of friends out here who, unlike some of the big movie executives, sympathize with this newspaper's fight for Americanism and are opposed to film propaganda for internationalism and burocracy.

A girl in a sarong wanted to know if THE TRIBUNE was selling tires. A group of dancers and workmen listened while we explained that the newspaper was merely demonstrating that the raw material for buna-S rubber could be made from waste at woodpulp mills as well as from grains and petroleum.

Hurl Back Nazis Near Adriatic Port.

LONDON, Oct. 17 (AP).—Gen. Josip [Tito] Broz announced today that Jugo-Slav partisans had thrown back Marshal Erwin Rommel's Nazi forces near the Adriatic port of Split, but had been forced to relinquish their hold on Zenica in the "Balkan Ruhr."

Mines, smelting furnaces, assembly ships for engines and the power station of an important Krupp plant at Zenica were destroyed before Tito's forces fell back "to their initial bases," a free Jugo-Slav radio announcement said. Yesterday's bulletin described bitter street fighting at Zenica.

Reverting to the swift thrusts that made Tito's bands famous, a partisan group dogging Nazi forces in northern Italy derailed a German troop train with explosives and then turned hidden artillery on the wreckage, killing more than 400 of the Germans and wounding 200 others, the Jugo-Slav announcement said.

Battle Along Railroad.

A Budapest dispatch received in Stockholm today said the Bucharest newspaper Rumanian Daily Curentul, reported that Premier Marshal Stalin has invited King Peter of Jugo-Slavia to Moscow to discuss future relations.

It was said that bitter fighting continued near Ogullin and Karkovac, on the Zagreb-Fiume railroad, near Gospic in southern Croatia, and along the Slovene-Styrian border in northern Jugo-Slavia.

This continuation of the fierce struggles ranging almost the length of Jugo-Slavia was coupled with new allied naval activity in the Adriatic and Aegean seas.

Offshore in the Adriatic, increasing British naval activity sent fleet light craft speeding close to the coast near Dubrovnik—one potential Balkans landing place—on the night of Oct. 14.

The vessels drew ineffective fire from shore batteries on Mljet, the island guarding Dubrovnik, but none was hit.

Summing up the situation in Jugo-Slavia, the Jugo-Slav broadcast said that all of the Croatian coastal region and the northern coast of Dalmatia except Zara and Sibenik were now under Tito's control.

It said that partisan forces were locked in fierce struggles with the Germans during the last week in various other points in Bosnia, including Susak and Zagreb, in Montenegro, at Trieste, and Fiume in northern Italy, and at Ljubljana.

Other fighting was reported on the Drina and Sava rivers, with Bijeljina occupied after the German garrison had been wiped out, and other towns freed.

Report Guerrillas Win Towns.

[By Wireless to the New York Times and The Chicago Tribune.]

CAIRO, Egypt, Oct. 16.—Gen. Draja Mihailovitch's guerrilla army, has occupied Gachko and Trejinje in Herzegovina and captured the Croatian and German forces defending these positions, according to information received this afternoon. It was also reported that the Mihailovitch troops had reached the Adriatic coast south of Dubrovnik.

This new drive by Mihailovitch does not appear to impinge upon territory where Josip Broz's partisans are operating and is an indication that the rival guerrilla groups are functioning separately, each in their own areas.

Mihailovitch is reported to have established an administration in all the territory separating Serbia and Montenegro.

Police to Test Automatic Pistol Found in Prairie

A .45 caliber army model automatic pistol, from which at least one shot appeared to have been fired, was found by a 13 year old boy last night in a prairie at 7857 State street. The boy took the pistol to Grand Crossing police station. Detectives plan to submit the weapon to a ballistics test today.

NAZIS' RESTRICTIONS ON ITALIAN PEOPLE AGAIN TIGHTENED

AT THE SWISS-ITALIAN FRONTIER, Oct. 17 (AP).—Advices from the German occupied zone of Italy indicated today the Nazis were constantly tightening their restrictions upon the people, among other things by requisition and firing squad.

Ten Italian hostages picked from among internees were reported publicly shot at Amandoly, in central Italy, in reprisal for an attack on a German army automobile in which two Nazi soldiers were killed.

There are levies upon food and all kinds of goods. All stores on the Via Venti Settembre of Milan have been closed by the Germans to facilitate requisitioning. All hotels at Milan and Como have been requisitioned for the use of German troops.

ARMY UNIT, PWB, PASSES ON FILMS SHOWN IN ITALY

SOUTHERN ITALY, Oct. 13 [Delayed]—(AP).—The Italian movie public, already flocking to American films in allied occupied territory, was notified today that the psychological warfare branch [PWB] of allied headquarters had assumed direct control of such entertainment.

An order published in Italian newspapers said all films henceforth must be authorized by the PWB and that Italian, Polish, and Swiss films which are "political or tendentious in character" will be barred.

Only films produced in the British empire, United States, Italy, Switzerland, France, Poland, Sweden, and the soviet union will be considered for release, the announcement said. English, Russian, and American films also will be "examined with special regard as to whether they are political or tendentious in character," the PWB said.

BRITISH NEWS OF U. S.-RUSSIA PACT CONFIRMED

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17 (AP).—The third lend-lease protocol with Russia is to be signed in London this week, probably Tuesday, according to state department sources who asked that their names be withheld. For the first time, Canada will join the United States and Great Britain in signing the aid agreement with the soviet union. The first agreement was made in Moscow in 1941 and on Oct. 6, 1942, the second one was signed here. At that time it was reported that the protocol would be renewed a year later.

CONFIRMS BRITISH NEWS.

The above dispatch was the first and only official confirmation obtainable in this country of information regarding plans for signing in London Tuesday of the new lend-lease agreement contained in dispatches received here from the British capital Saturday. Persons familiar with the Washington news situation said yesterday this is one of the clearest examples of the manner in which the withholding of news in Washington has made the United States dependent upon British sources for news of acts of the United States government. The British dispatches contained a comprehensive account of plans for the signing of the new agreement, including the name of the proposed American signatory.

Pope Offers Gold to Aid Ransom of Italian Jews

LONDON, Oct. 17 (AP).—Pope Pius and the ladies nobility of Rome are prepared to contribute up to 50 kilograms [110 pounds] in gold toward a ransom demanded by the Nazis for Italian Jews held as hostages, the Bari radio said in a broadcast today. The Bari radio is controled by the Badoglio government.

RUSSIANS DRIVE 15 MILES THRU FOE ON DNIEPER

Force 4th River Crossing in Gomel Sector.

LONDON, Oct. 18 [Monday]—(AP).—The Red army, threatening the early collapse of Germany's Dnieper line, smashed 15 miles deep inside the river loop behind Dnepropetrovsk yesterday and also made a new crossing in force southeast of Gomel, the Russians announced today.

Rolling over the bodies of 2,000 Germans in a major break-thru on a 28 mile front, a war bulletin said the Red army captured five German strong points, including one only 14 miles from the trunk railway connecting Dnepropetrovsk and Kiev.

The Berlin high command hinted that the Germans already were beginning another massive withdrawal from the lower Dnieper because of the Russian break-thru in the rear of the axis forces fighting there and at Melitopol, where the death grapple in the streets had entered its sixth day.

Capture Heights Near Kiev.

Pouring across the Dnieper in the Loev sector, between Kiev and Gomel, the Russians rolled six miles thru a heavily defended German sector, said the bulletin. This was the fourth major crossing of the Dnieper. Advantageous heights also were reported captured in the Kiev sector.

A total of more than 9,000 Germans was reported killed during yesterday's fighting, 100 tanks were knocked out, and scores of planes, guns, ammunition dumps, and small arms captured.

Moscow said 1,000 more Germans fell in "constant counter-attacks" in the struggle inside Melitopol, gateway to the Crimea. A Russian relief army bearing down from the north was smashing one enemy "position after another" the bulletin said.

Threatens to Flank Germans.

Of the four key sectors, however, the massive Russian blow inside the Dnieper loop was the most important strategically. It threatened to flank all the Germans in the bend to the east along the river, at Melitopol and in the Crimea.

Germany's high command bulletin spoke of a "big detaching movement" on the eastern front — the first time that phrase has been used since the Russians reached and crossed the Dnieper. It said "most" of the Russian assaults northwest of Dnepropetrovsk had been repulsed, but a later Berlin broadcast said the Russians were using 225,000 men, supported by hundreds of tanks, guns, and planes on that single sector of the front.

The battle for Melitopol was one of the great attrition engagements of the war with tremendous stakes involved, Moscow dispatches said, and the soviet radio said Adolf Hitler had ordered his troops to hold that strategic gateway to the Crimea and the Dnieper "under penalty of death."

Battle in Gomel Suburbs.

[A London broadcast said there was "evidence that some advanced Russian forces have broken thru the German rear communications at Kiev." The German garrison at Gomel also was "said to be getting out their equipment by train and glider."]

The new crossing of the Dnieper below Gomel was made on a 15 mile front, and the newspaper Pravda said the Russians achieved it in boats under protection of heavy artillery fire from the east bank.

Germany's perilous position inside the Dnieper loop was indicated in Berlin broadcasts which told of "a fluctuating battle," and of the "numerical superiority" of the attacking Russians.

One German broadcast said two soviet tank divisions and four guards' units were "almost completely wiped out" in the fighting between Kremenchug and Dnepropetrovsk.

REPORT INTENSE NAVAL ACTIVITY NEAR DENMARK

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Oct. 17 (AP).—Travelers from Denmark and the Swedish west coast today reported intense naval and air activity in the Skagerrak and said there were signs that a naval engagement of some kind had taken place in that area during the past week.

The thunder of guns, which one observer said did not sound like the firing of practice rounds, was heard as light German warships moved constantly in recent days between Denmark and Norway. The Skagerrak separates these two countries and connects with the North sea.

Wreckage, which looked to some Danish fishermen as if it came from warships, was washed ashore at Skagen, on the northern tip of Denmark, and on the west coast of Jutland province.

YANKS DAMAGE SUGAR MILL AND BURMA RAILWAY

NEW DELHI, India, Oct. 17 (AP).—American and R. A. F. bombers and fighters, continuing attacks aimed at crippling Japanese transport in Burma, damaged rail lines near Mandalay and at Hawhaw and scored direct hits on sugar mills at Hawhaw without loss, a bulletin announced today.

Japanese headquarters at Kalemyo and a supply base were attacked by R. A. F. Vengeance bombers yesterday, and jetty and railway installations at Sagaing on the Irrawaddy river and objectives at Taungup were the targets for last night's raids.

Between Prome and Thazi the R. A. F. machine gunned and damaged eight locomotives. North of Toungoo British planes blew up a three ton truck filled with troops. They damaged or destroyed 10 other trucks.

VETERAN OF 300 JAPANESE RAIDS HOME ON LEAVE

Capt. W. A. Bowe.

Capt. Walter A. Bowe, 26 years old, who landed on Guadalcanal a week after the marines had taken Henderson field, was on leave yesterday at his home, 6502 South Bishop street. He said his unit took part in the Battle of Bloody Hill, and was subjected to 300 bombing raids. Capt. Bowe entered the army as a second lieutenant when the Illinois National Guard was called into national service in March, 1941. He formerly was a foreman employed by the Container corporation.

LONDON BOMBED; NAZIS FLY OVER AREA FOR HOUR

Allied Planes Hit Europe in Earlier Attack.

Casualties were reported in one outer London area.

British ground guns for a few minutes put up a barrage comparable with that of Oct. 7, when 15 raiders plunged 30 tons of bombs on the city. The all-clear sounded at 3:30 a. m.

Earlier a strong force of fighter planes flew across the English channel and shortly afterward Nazi anti-aircraft fire could be heard from northern France.

[Nazi radios at Luxemburg and Berlin went off the air, the federal communications commission reported, indicating that bombers might be among the attackers. Heavy rain blocked operations in daylight yesterday, but the sky cleared later, the British radio said.]

Schweinfurt Plant Inactive.

Describing the results of a new study of damage heaped on the Schweinfurt ball and roller bearing plant by American bombers on Thursday, Brig. Gen. Frederick L. Anderson said yesterday that "the entire works are now inactive."

"It may be possible for the Germans eventually to restore 25 per cent of normal productive capacity, but even that would require some time," said the commander of the United States 8th air force bomber command.

Gen. Anderson made the statement following a detailed study of reconnaissance photographs which revealed "even more extensive destruction and damage than was first estimated from 'strike pictures' taken when the target was covered with smoke from fires and bursting bombs."

The statement described the plant as "the most vital air target in all Germany."

Nazis Bomb Britain.

"It said the raid, made at a cost of 60 American bombers during which 102 Nazi fighters were shot down, left fires raging "thruout three plant areas, burning out not only factories but stores and dispatch buildings as well."

Dispatches from Stockholm reported that Nazi concern over falling bearing production was reflected in a report from Berne, Switzerland, that the Germans in recent days sent large orders for bearings to the Schmidt-Rost company in Zurich. The dispatches also reported that use of gasoline for all civilian, commercial and much military transport in Germany, The Netherlands, and Norway has been prohibited because of the bearing shortage.

Nazis Claim New Air Weapon.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

GENEVA, Switzerland, Oct. 17.—German newspapers are still gloating over what they call the Nazis' "defensive air victory" against American Flying Fortresses in the raid on Schweinfurt. They claim the Luftwaffe's success was due to new weapons, especially to the brand new and what is believed to be more powerful ammunition used by German fighting planes. This, according to the Berlin Boersen Zeitung, was "feverishly developed recently and answers completely the hopes entertained for it."

The Hamburg newspaper Fremdenblatt stated: "The American flyers were attacked by 700 German planes as soon as they reached Germany."

Hanover "Ceases to Exist."

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Oct. 17 (AP).—Hanover "has ceased to exist" as a city after allied bombings, and looks worse than Hamburg, a traveler from Germany said today.

Gets Son's Medal

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

Lt. Col. D. A. Tate presenting air medal to Mrs. Gottlieb Krutsch, who accepted it for her son, Sgt. Henry Krutsch.

Sgt. Henry Krutsch, who died Feb. 6 to save the lives of his comrades on an experimental flying mission in the European theater, was posthumously awarded the air medal in a ceremony yesterday in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Krutsch, 5046 Ainslie street. Mrs. Krutsch accepted the medal from Lt. Col. David A. Tate, commanding officer of the Kellogg field, Mich., army air base.

The citation read: "For extraordinary achievement and heroism while on an experimental high altitude mission under extremely cold and otherwise adverse conditions. The oxygen system of the airplane developed trouble and several crew members lost consciousness. With complete disregard for his own safety, Sgt. Krutsch heroically rendered successful first aid to his unconscious comrades; in so doing he lost his own life."

Segt. Krutsch was 22 years old and entered the army on Jan. 23, 1942.

3 JAP COLUMNS CONTINUE DRIVE IN WEST CHINA

CHUNGKING, China, Oct. 17 (AP).—Bitter fighting in Yunnan province, with one of three main Japanese columns advancing eastward to the Salween river, was announced today by the Chinese high command. A Chinese offensive is developing on the eastern front between Hangchow and Nanking, headquarters added.

In Yunnan, a Japanese force which occupied Pienma Thursday continued eastward and reached the Salween river opposite Luku, where it was engaged in bitter fighting. A second main column advancing northward from Mangyun-Chieh has been held at bay near Siaochungkow, the bulletin said. The third column operating north of the Burma road advanced near Chiehtou and Kutungchieh.

REPATRIATES ON WAY TO U. S. GET SHORE LIBERTY

Assigned Berths on Liner Gripsholm.

MORMUGAO, Portuguese India, Oct. 17—(AP).—All American repatriates aboard the Japanese liner Teia Maru, which brought 1,500 Americans, Canadians, and Latin Americans from Japan, were taken ashore for a few moments today while being registered and assigned berths on the Swedish liner Gripsholm, which will take them home.

The Americans were delighted at the prospect of boarding the Gripsholm. They had heard of the swimming pool, hot baths, fruit, whisky, individual bunks, movies twice a week, and all those other seemingly simple things that they had so long gone without.

Surrounded by 1,500 Japs.

The Gripsholm docked at this port on the Arabian sea yesterday as a group of American merchant marines aboard her, surrounded by 1,500 sober eyed Japanese, sang "God Bless America."

"We've got what it takes," shouted one seaman, leaning over the Gripsholm's stern, while Americans on the bow of the Teia Maru 70 yards away yelled and waved handkerchiefs.

None of the Americans complained seriously of the attitude of the officers and crew on the Teia Maru. Many members of the crew were mere boys.

There were some complaints against a group of rowdy fellow compatriots. Half a dozen commented that they would have been glad if these had been left behind, and more worthy internes rescued.

Jap Jumps Overboard.

Japanese repatriates on the Gripsholm sang their national anthem as the ship arrived. Returning to Japan, one Japanese developed mental disorders and jumped overboard. Three Japanese babies were born aboard the ship. One American child was born on the Teia Maru.

Missionaries aboard the Teia Maru held prayer meetings last night, and their hymns were heard over the harbor.

Port officials are trying to finish the exchange as soon as possible, while the good weather continues, since there is no provision ashore for sheltering passengers.

Passengers of both ships hung over the rails, watching their baggage being pulled out of the holds and observing with considerable envy those passengers such as correspondents who had friends ashore who brought them beer, fruit, and cigarets.

PURSE SNATCHER GETS $7.

Mrs. Ella Johnson, 742 East Marquette road, asked the police last night to search for a young Negro who snatched her purse from under her arm as she was walking at 65th street and Cottage Grove avenue. The purse contained $7.

CHICAGO TURNS SUBWAY'S FIRST DAY TO JOYRIDE

Chicago eased smoothly into a city of subway riders yesterday as thousands of Sunday passengers—estimated by Rapid Transit company officials at three times the normal number—took their first ride in the new underground tube.

Service began at one minute after midnight yesterday, and the trains were jammed with curiosity riders, many from other cities.

There was some confusion, company officials said.

"Express trains that travel thru the loop either north or south will use the subway," a company spokesman said. "Trains that go around the loop, and all local trains will continue to use the elevated structure."

Altho schedules have not been given the test of actual rush hour operation, officials of the "L" estimated that from 10 to 16 minutes would be clipped from running time between the northern extremity of the 4.9 mile tunnel at Willow street to its southern end at 16th street.

ROBS, THEN TIPS, CAB DRIVER.

Richard Lemke, 29 years old, 1622 Hollywood avenue, a taxicab driver, reported to police yesterday that a polite bandit returned his empty wallet and proffered a cigaret and a dime after robbing him of $10 in front of 5154 North Clark street.

MUSIC, WINTER A DOUBLE TONIC AT NAVY EXHIBIT

Yesterday's preview of winter served as an invigorating tonic to thousands of persons who visited the "Back the Attack" navy show in Tribune square. The show is sponsored by the treasury department in coöperation with THE TRIBUNE.

Afternoon show visitors heard a special musical program by the Camp Robert Small Negro band of 26 pieces from Great Lakes naval training station. In addition, the camp brought along its 18 piece dance orchestra and the popular numbers presented in lively tempo were warmly applauded.

The camp's octet, comprised of singers who have attended or taught at 16 colleges in the United States, presented spirituals and patriotic songs which also proved popular.

The 750 ton destroyer escort built by Defoe Shipbuilding company of Bay City, Mich., which was scheduled to be on exhibit at the show yesterday, ran into rough weather 50 miles north of Bay City Saturday and was forced to stop all night at Tawas City, Mich. The ship will arrive in Chicago today, but its schedule, which calls for it to be delivered to the government at once, may not permit its appearance at the show.

Danes Wounded as Nazi Guns Scatter Crowd

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Oct. 17 (AP).—The Germans are still firing on gatherings of more than five persons in Denmark despite the avowed relaxation of martial law, the Stockholm newspaper Tidningen said today. A number of person were wounded at Aalborg last week the newspaper added, when from 1,500 to 2,000 Danes gathered to watch a German transport convoy. German soldiers in armored cars sprayed the streets with bullets as loudspeakers warned the people that they were prohibited from assembling.

FAIL TO ATTAIN AIRPLANE GOAL, OWI DISCLOSES

Report Exposes Various Production Errors.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17.—American aircraft production this year will fall short of President Roosevelt's announced goals, the office of war information disclosed tonight in its second annual report of the nation's progress in attaining air supremacy. Blame for the output lag was attributed by the OWI to changes in models, engine shortages, labor deficits, maldistribution of raw materials, and plant reorganizations.

American planes and crews have shot down 7,312 enemy aircraft while losing 1,867, the report said.

Reiterating the supremacy of American aircraft and recounting the ratio of enemy plane losses to ours, OWI contended that the battle box scores "tell the story." The ratio ranged from almost 9 to 1 in China to approximately 2 to 1 in Sicily and Italy. The score for heavy bombers was 4 to 1.

The report exposed production mistakes, stating that production of some models was prolonged beyond their combat usefulness, that defective parts of many types had been delivered, that in some cases companies failed to train their personnel adequately and permitted faulty inspections, and that errors have been made by inexperienced workmen.

Goal May Not Be Met.

The production goal of 10,000 planes a month by the end of the year, the OWI reported, may not be attained. It said that the month to month gain has not met war production board expectations.

September plane production, the report showed, dropped to 7,598 units compared with 7,612 units weighing 59 million pounds in August. The OWI did not disclose the September output in pounds. On the basis of the August output, the annual production rate is about 720 million pounds a year—far below President Roosevelt's 910 million pound goal.

Production marks this year were set originally by President Roosevelt at 125,000 planes. Material shortages early this year and shifting emphasis to heavy bombers caused the WPB to lower its sights to 117,000 planes, and later, unofficially, to 90,000. President Roosevelt also revised his goals, explaining that he had hoped for an annual output rate at the end of 1943 of 125,000 planes or, translating the goal into weight, 910 million pounds a year.

"Over the Hump."

Declaring that the aircraft industry has rolled over the hump of mass production, the OWI added that "we have passed thru that critical period during which production speed was paramount" and improvement and design changes can now proceed at a more normal pace. Donald M. Nelson, WPB chairman, made a similar comment in his Sept. 22 production report when he said that the industry could afford to take a temporary production loss in order to make design changes and eliminate flaws.

Underlining the major improvements in American aircraft in the last year, the OWI mentioned the increased horsepower of the Allison liquid cooled engine, which now rates in the 1,500 horsepower bracket with the Packard built Rolls Royce Merlin.

The Allison is used in the Lockheed Lightning P-38 and the Bell Airacobra P-39, the OWI explained, because the V type liquid cooled engine's long slender shape is more adaptable to fighter design. An improved highly super-charged Merlin is being used in the new North American Mustang P-51, giving it the highest ceiling of any fighter plane [40,000 feet] and the highest speed [over 400 miles an hour].

Build Giant Bomber.

Other important developments listed by OWI were:

1. A new battle wagon of the skies, a giant bomber that will eventually replace the Boeing B-17 Flying Fortress for long range work is expected to become a potent factor by next spring. No details of its range or bomb load were divulged, but army sources have previously disclosed that the new bomber, B-29, will dwarf the Flying Fortress and the Consolidated Liberator B-24.

2. Machine gun nests are being built into the nose turrets of the Flying Fortress and Liberator, and bomb capacity is being expanded.

Swan Song for Warhawk.

3. Production of the Curtiss P-40 Warhawk is being limited to operational training and replacements. The OWI said the Wright field materiel command has decided that this fighter plane has reached the end of its developmental possibilities.

4. The Bell Airacobra P-39 is being supplanted by a new model that will have a supercharged Allison engine, making it efficient at any altitude up to 38,000 or 40,000 feet. The P-39's greatest effectiveness has been below 15,000 feet. About half of the total output of this plane has gone to Russia where it is used for ground strafing with machine gun and cannon.

5. The Grumman F-4-F Wildcat will be used mostly for auxiliary carriers and training purposes. It is being supplemented, OWI said, by the new Grumman F-6-F Hellcat, which will have improved range, climb, speed, maneuverability, and altitude. The Hellcat is the navy's answer to improved Japanese Zero fighters.

Taper Off Marauders.

6. Production of the Martin B-26 Marauder is being tapered off because the army has decided to concentrate on the North American B-25 Mitchell in the medium bomber class.

7. A totally new light bomber now being readied for production is described by the army as "three or four years ahead" of the Douglas A-20 Havoc. The new bomber will be an all purpose plane equipped with cannon and interchangeable noses for different types of operations.

The OWI noted that the period of large scale experimentation for the most effective models has passed. Early in the program, it explained, the air forces discovered that our pre-war military planes were not equal to those of the enemy and undertook the tremendous project of redesigning our aircraft for modern combat.

"The design cycle," the OWI said, "has reached the point where some designs are being eliminated in order to concentrate on the production of the most successful types. The efficient balance between design and production has been attained, with the result that a stabilized condition prevails."

The OWI asserted that its study of reports from the war and navy departments and aircraft manufacturers has convinced it that American combat planes have proved themselves superior to axis aircraft in battle and that the aircraft industry is doing a "stupendous" job well.

Combat Score of U. S. Planes

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17 (AP).—Here is the score of American warplane combat as announced today by the office of war information:

Comdr. James S. Freeman.

SOUTH PACIFIC HDQ., Oct. 17 (AP).—The 14,000 ton freighter Alchiba, whose crew would not let her die, today received the Presidential unit citation for outstanding service in delivering war supplies thru Japanese controled waters.

Adm. William F. Halsey Jr., allied commander in the South Pacific, presented the citation on behalf of President Roosevelt. It was accepted by Comdr. Howard R. Shaw of Somerville, Mass., in the name of his ship.

The Alchiba twice was ripped by torpedoes between Nov. 28 and Dec. 7, 1942, off Guadalcanal. A Japanese submarine hit her first and the Alchiba, exploding and aflame, was beached successfully while her crew berthed ashore for nine days and nights salvaging her cargo and fighting the fire.

Take Her Back to Port.

When the task seemed finished and the ship was refloated, she was hit again in the engine room and her power was knocked out. Yet the crew repaired her sufficiently to enable her to limp back 6,000 miles to a west coast port.

Now the Alchiba is once more carrying supplies to advance bases.

Aboard the Alchiba, Adm. Halsey, commander of the South Pacific forces, said:

"Officers and men of this historic ship, this is a proud moment of my life. The heroic work you have done and the conditions under which you did it on that splendid occasion will live forever in the annals of our country as an inspiration to the youth of coming generations.

"You Have No Equal."

"Such men as you have nothing to fear. You proved you have no equal among the enemy."

Most of the crew members are from the 2d naval reserve division of Boston, Mass. Nearly five-sixths of the original crew is still aboard, altho the captain at the time of the torpedoing, Comdr. James S. Freeman of Jasper, Ala., now is on duty at the Great Lakes Training station.

BODY OF CHICAGO MAN RECOVERED IN BLIMP CRASH

Daniel E. Giordano.

Lakehurst, N. J., Oct. 17 (AP).—Recovery of the bodies of two officers and four enlisted men aboard a United States navy blimp that plunged into the Atlantic ocean after a midair collision with another blimp was announced today by the naval air station at Lakehurst.

Washed ashore at various points along a three mile stretch of the ocean front near here, the bodies were recovered by coast guardsmen. An officer and an enlisted man are still missing, air station authorities said.

Those whose bodies have been recovered included Daniel E. Giordano, 24 years old, aviation machinist's mate, second class, of 3547 West 63d street, Chicago.

The blimps collided Saturday in a fog off Barnegat inlet. One of them plunged into the ocean, but the other returned to Lakehurst with minor damage and no loss of life or injury to personnel.

CONGRESS PROBE OF ARMY PLANE CRASHES ASKED

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17 (AP).—A congressional investigation of crashes of military planes has been proposed by Rep. John C. Butler [R., N. Y.] which he said should ascertain "if it is sabotage or neglect of factory." The war department said today it had no information so far on the proposed inquiry. "We can take it [the crashes] when it is accidental," Butler said, "but feel if it is sabotage or neglect of factory, let them take the responsibility, but please do not destroy our youth before they have had an opportunity to display what their training has taught them."

$7,000 LOSS IN FACTORY FIRE.

Fire, believed to have been caused by crossed wires, caused damage estimated at $7,000 yesterday to the Fiat Metal Manufacturing company plant, 1205 Roscoe street.

JAPS' POACHING ENDED FOREVER, SAY ATTU YANKS

BY HAROLD SMITH.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

ATTU, THE ALEUTIANS, Oct. 13 [Delayed].—More effective control of the wild life resources of Alaska and surrounding waters is certain to follow the war, military leaders said here today. Japan long has been a violator of conservation precepts agreed upon by the United States, Russia, and Canada, but was handled gingerly before the war by diplomats reluctant to force a showdown.

Military and naval bases on the Aleutians will permit better policing, and with enforceable and intelligent control of the harvest of salmon, halibut, whales, seals, and sea otter, these resources can be saved from extinction.

Knew of Poaching.

"Thank heaven, the time for pussyfooting with the Japs has passed," said a high ranking officer. "Most Alaskans have long known what the government has professed to disbelieve, that the Japs brazenly poached the nation's land and sea preserves."

Salmon canning was started in California in 1864 and moved northward. Alaska and Siberia became the main sources of this food staple. Of the 1936 world pack of about 13,250,000 24-can cases, Alaska contributed 8½ million cases or approximately five-eighths, British Columbia one-sixth, and Japan and Russia most of the remainder.

By 1937, it was apparent a large part of the Japanese pack was coming from American waters. No conservationists themselves, the Japs had no compunction against taking salmon by gill nets off Alaska when the fish returned north to spawn.

Convoy Guards Seals.

Alarmed at this threat to the industry that once produced four-fifths of their territory's annual public revenue, Alaskan fishermen in 1937 sent an observation plane to Bristol bay where Japanese salmon canning activity was photographed. These findings, after months of public furore, brought the 1938 agreement.

Nipponese trouble was experienced also in the international efforts to halt the decline in the fur seal population by means of the seal treaty of 1911. Pruning of the main seal herd in the Pribiloff Islands west of the Alaskan peninsula, was limited to the smaller of the 3 year old bachelors, but Jap interception of the seals' northward spring migration from warmer waters forced the inauguration of the United States coast guard convoy.

NEW PHILIPPINE REGIME OFF TO FIDGETY START

[By Wireless to the New York Times and The Chicago Tribune.]

BERNE, Switzerland, Oct. 17.—Jose Laurel's Philippine Republic got away to a fidgety start last Thursday but now is well on the road to destiny, according to Tokio and Manila dispatches to the German press.

In Manila 300,000 Filipinos, said German estimates, joined in the national anthem as Gen. Emilio Aguinaldo, the veteran Philippine fighter for liberty, hoisted the new national colors in Parliament square.

Lt. Gen. Kuroda, the Japanese commander in a farewell proclamation, warned that problems of a grave economic and cultural nature still awaited solution. Japan, he added, would always stand by ready to help the Philippines. Tokio dispatches to the German press freely hint that Japan will back up the Laurel regime to the limit. The islands will remain under the tutelage of Japan and be made an integral part of the greater Asia system.

RHODES PUPIL RAPS TRIBUNE FOR EDITORIALS

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 17 [Special].—Dr. Frank Aydelotte, director of the Institute for Advanced Study here and American secretary of the Rhodes trustees, today attacked THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE for a series of editorials accusing Rhodes scholars of plotting to repeal the Declaration of Independence and make the United States a British colony.

Dr. Aydelotte also attacked Rep. Clare Hoffman [R., Mich.] for remarks he has made regarding Americans who have studied at Oxford university under the scholarship program.

Dr. Aydelotte said: "The attack on American Rhodes scholars as alien agents subsidized by foreign money" was an old and false story that was first circulated by George Sylvester Viereck in 1916 in his propaganda to discourage the United States from protecting its rights on the high seas and mobilize pro-German sentiment.

Dr. Aydelotte said the "traitors" THE TRIBUNE was seeking to "expose" included a long list of college presidents and professors, heads of theological seminaries and pastors of prominent churches, and men prominent in many other walks of life, and "last, but not least, 250 members of the armed forces of the United States."

He said there was an association of Rhodes scholars, but they "have jealously refused to allow it at any time in its history to express an opinion, by no matter how large a majority, on any political subject."

4 CHICAGOLAND AIRMEN DIE IN CRASH OF FORT

The crew included Omar M. Bartz, Milwaukee, Wis.; Merrill C. Evert, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Donald C. Smith, Indianapolis, Ind., and James A. Niebrugge, Effingham, Ill.

Crash Starts Forest Fire.

Harrisonburg, Va., Oct. 17 (AP).—An army plane crashed on a mountain and burned in the Shenandoah National Park near here today, starting a forest fire that swept 20 acres before it was brought under control.

INDIA'S STARVING PROMISED FOOD 2 WEEKS HENCE

Emergency Plan for Nov. 1 Arranged.

NEW DELHI, India, Oct. 17 (AP).—Some relief was promised today for the starving thousands in India's famine areas thru an official announcement that the central government expected to have an emergency food distribution plan in operation by Nov. 1.

J. P. Srivastava, civil defense and food member of the executive council, said the plan involved transfer of food grains from provinces with surpluses into the deficit areas. The emergency program is expected to give way to a long range plan April 1, 1944.

He said the government regarded rationing in the cities as a fundamental part of the food plan and urged provinces and states not already engaged in setting up rationing schemes to do so immediately.

"Price Control Impossible."

Srivastava, speaking at the final session of the fourth all-India food conference yesterday, announced the central government had accepted the conference's recommendation that statutory prices to control all major food grains should be instituted in all provinces.

He added, however, that statutory prices were impossible under present conditions.

"Horrors Indescribable."

Pandit Friday Nath Kunzru, Nationalist council state member, in a statement after visiting the famine areas in the Calcutta, Midnapore, and Burdwan districts of Bengal, said he saw "horrors well nigh indescribable."

"There was hardly any part of Calcutta where I haven't seen human beings looking like corpses and starving wretches rummaging in dustbins and garbage heaps for a few food grains.

"Contai seemed like a city of the dead. In the villages I visited the situation was even worse than in Contai. I saw corpses in every village I visited."

Plant Making Gunpowder Curtailed by Explosion

Logan's Ferry, Pa., Oct. 17 (AP).—An explosion at the aluminum bronze powder works today caused damage sufficient to curtail production by one-fourth, but all workers escaped injury, officials of the Aluminum Company of America, operators of the plant, reported. Officials declined to reveal the possible cause of the explosion, or to estimate the damage. The plant manufactures gunpowder exclusively for the military forces.

U. S. SUPPLYING FOOD AND ARMS FOR 32 FRONTS

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17 (AP).—The senate naval committee reported today that the United States is shipping food and equipment to "at least 32 different fronts, some of them 17,000 miles from the point of origin."

"In the midst of the war," the committee said, "the United States has built its navy into the greatest sea-air power on earth. Its size is dwarfed only by the size of the task which fronts it."

The statements were made in a terse review of the navy's part in the war thru the conquest of the Aleutians and the landings on North Africa. The committee said that during that time the navy fought 15 main engagements and participated in six campaigns, some of which, as in the central Pacific, are still continuing. The report said the navy has lost or given up 484,521 tons of fighting ships, which the committee described as "a small navy in itself."

The Japanese fleet apparently was squaring off for a showdown battle with allied forces in the Guadalcanal area last January, but finally backed down, the committee reported.

DRAWN FROM PRECIOUS PRE-WAR RESERVES...
There's ENOUGH of this fine whiskey, IF...
Prized as a magnificent whiskey since 1882, the demand for Three Feathers far exceeds the supply. But, by drawing on the "reserve stocks" we accumulated before the war, there will be enough for the duration ::: if used in moderation. We are making every effort to equitably apportion Three Feathers to all dealers—so that you may continue to enjoy this fine whiskey. ☛ Meanwhile, our distilleries are concentrating 100% on war alcohol.

"Electronics?"
SURE! We've had it in our home for twenty years

You're not being fooled by what you've read and heard about the wonders of Electronics. We have been enjoying the miracle of Electronics these many eventful years. Where? How? Why that radio in our living-room and the one in our car is an electronic device. So the next time anyone talks to you about Electronics . . . you just be smart and say, "Sure, I have an electronic device right now . . . it's my radio."

Motorola Radio engineers who built those fine pre-war home and car radios were pioneers in Electronics. They have added much to their wealth of electronic knowledge in the development and production of Radar and Radio Communications Equipment for our Army and Navy. And for the duration, the production of these weapons for Victory will be Motorola's full time job.

As much as we would like to, we cannot tell you what the post-war Motorola Radio will look like. But we can tell you that it will look and sound swell. Meanwhile, let's keep all that Victory stuff coming off the production lines! And let's buy all the War Bonds we can!

For the development and production of Radio Communications Equipment for our Armed Forces, the Motorola organization was awarded the Army-Navy "E" with added Star for continued excellence of performance. Motorola is proud of the part it has been privileged to play in the speeding of Victory.

DUFFY TO CLEAN UP OFFICE—'OR FIRE EVERY MAN'

Vows Political Barriers Shall Not Interfere.

BY JAMES DOHERTY.

Ald. John J. Duffy of the 19th ward, who became acting sheriff on Friday, announced yesterday that the forces of that office will cooperate wholeheartedly in the campaign of State's Attorney Courtney and the grand jury to smash the Guzik gang and bring to justice the slayers of Martin [Sonny Boy] Quirk and Danny Stanton. Duffy said he will tell his department heads today what he expects from them, and thereafter he wants results.

Duffy called a conference of Hugh McCarthy, chief of the highway police; Joe Lelivelt, chief bailiff; Joseph Higgins, assistant sheriff; Sen. John Lee, chief deputy sheriff; Warden Frank Sain of the county jail, and the men now acting as lieutenants at the three county highway police stations.

Every Member on Trial.

"After I talk to the department heads, I am going to each station and address the policemen at roll call," said Duffy. "I'm going to tell them how I feel, and turn them loose 'on their own.'

"Then, if they do not do what they should, there will be no excuses. I intend to correct whatever is wrong in the system if I have to fire every man in it.

"I may be the most unpopular Democrat in the city in a few weeks, but I'm going to stop what's going on or get out myself. I have some ideas on what should be done. If the men don't carry out those ideas, I'll make them quit or fire them. As it is, the men who have been bringing discredit on their department aren't worth a damn to the sheriff.

"I'm going to take the sheriff's place because he is sick, and if I have to get in wrong with every political leader in the county it will be all right with me.

Forbids Political Interference.

"But while I'm acting for the sheriff, the policemen aren't going to be taking orders from township committeemen. They are not to listen to any one or pay attention to any one other than their commanding officers.

"A lot of fakers may not like me for what I'm doing, but that will not stop me. The present stff is to have an opporunity to do what is right, and if they don't take advantage of that opporunity there will be no regrets over their departure."

The sheriff's police force—which has jurisdiction in the county territory outside the city limits of Chicago—has been under fire of the state's attorney's office, the October grand jury and the Chicago crime commission, mainly because of gambling places operated by the Guzik gang.

Gambling Wheels Missing.

On Sept. 8 the state's attorney's office raided a large casino at 7466 Irving Park road in the territory of the sheriff's police of the Morton Grove station. Seven valuable roulette wheels were entrusted to the sheriff's police.

When a court order was obtained for their destruction, they were not to be found at the police station. Lt. Myles McDonough told a story of burning them. Others said the wheels had been taken from the gambling resort by agents of the syndicate headed by Jack Guzik, former brothel keeper. Lt. McDonough and Sgt. Philip Schwartz of the sheriff's staff were indicted.

Tip-off Is Charged.

On Oct. 7 the crime commission asked the sheriff's police to raid two gambling houses in Cicero at 4730 Cermak road and 5937 Roosevelt road. Crime commision agents were in both places and reported that the gaming bosses were given advance information that police were coming.

These charges of collusion made against the county highway police soon were followed by charges of collusion between city police and the Guzik gambling syndicate. The grand jury's investigation turned to the political power that permitted John Williams—now accused of the murder of Quirk, a Guzik agent—to run a string of gambling houses, day and night, in the neighborhood of 63d street and Kedzie avenue for a year without molestation by police.

This investigation is to be resumed today. State's Attorney Courtney and his chief aid, Wilbert F. Crowley, said yesterday the jurors will continue their inquiry, regardless of what Duffy does to clean up the county or what Commissioner Allman does in the city.

THE QUESTION.

What did you ever do that should have made news, but didn't?

WHERE ASKED.

Lobby of Art institute.

THE ANSWERS.

Nan Calkins, student, 588 Lee street, Glen Ellyn—One of the biggest events in my life was living for a year in Richard Halliburton's California home. His father gave us permission to occupy it, furnishings and all. I slept under a mural photo of the Taj Mahal and felt like the great explorer myself.

Joan Eaton, student, 1025 North Dearborn street—Maybe it wouldn't be of interest to any one else, but to me it was quite important. After wearing my hair in a short tomboyish bob for 15 years, I let it grow long enough for two pigtail braids. This was at a time when all the other girls were getting theirs cut short.

Jeanne Tellefsen, student, 1914 New England avenue—I have always been very much afraid of horses, but I was determined to conquer my misgivings and learn to ride. I should have made history, I think, on the day that I climbed into the saddle for my great adventure. I trotted and galloped and didn't fall from the horse once.

Vera McKillip, student, 1950 Orchard street—I was awakened in the middle of the night by the smell of smoke. I found that our refrigerator was on fire. I put the fire out quickly and then aroused not only the two other girls in our apartment, but every one in the building, to tell them what a heroine I was.

Jerry Kovitz, student, 1916 Lincoln Park West—I had quite a bit of publicity when I captured a bandit, but at the time I thought I should have rated bigger headlines. The bandit tried to rob my father's store and I pointed a toy gun at him. I kept him there with that little weapon until the police arrived.

Katherine Spanos, student, 1001 North Dearborn street—I competed in a beauty contest to select Miss Liberty and I thought they sort of slighted those of us who were runners-up. I was in the court of honor for the girl who won and I think it would have been fun if they had pictured us with her.

MERCURY DROPS TO 31, BREAKING 43 YEAR RECORD

Many of Chicago's war gardens were dealt a death blow yesterday when the temperature dropped to 31 degrees at 7:15 a. m., breaking by one degree the record of Oct. 17, established in 1880.

Colder temperatures were recorded in the outlying suburbs, where ice formations were found in back yard ponds and bird baths. More than 100 Boy Scouts, who had camped Saturday night in the Salt Creek forest preserve north of Addison in Du Page county, reported they found ice almost a quarter inch thick in fire buckets standing outside their tents.

END TRIAL OF 14 U.S. SOLDIERS ON MUTINY CHARGE

3 Chicagoans in Group; Verdict Kept Secret.

BY E. R. NODERER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Oct. 17.—Three of the 14 American Negro soldiers accused of mutiny, rioting, and intent to murder at a Paignton, Devon, court martial, came from Chicago. They are Privates Freddie Blake, 20 years old; Tom Enwing, 32, and Willis Gibbs, 23.

The court martial, which lasted three days, ended last night. Lt. Col. Raymond Zeckle, president of the court, announced that its findings would not be published.

The prisoners filed out of court not knowing whether they had been found guilty or innocent. As they left the court, the prisoners whispered excitedly among themselves, and grinned as they were ushered into a covered truck.

Fourteen M. P.'s on Guard.

The court began at 9:30 a. m. and went on until 7:30 p. m. All day long the prisoners sat on two wooden benches set aside for them. They talked, smoked, or dozed. The defense counsel walked up and down the room trying to keep warm.

At the back of the court newspaper men did their work and talked with spectators. Twelve white military police guarded the doors and two more stood by the prosecuting counsel's table.

The court martial developed from a shooting fray in a Cornish town on Sept. 26 which followed "a spot of trouble in a pub." Testimony at the trial brought out that the night before the shooting five Negro soldiers were told to return to camp by military police when they were found to be without passes. One of the Negroes threatened an M. P.

Return with Guns.

The next night 18 Negro soldiers entered the lounge of the pub and were told they could not be served there. They left reluctantly. Later that night the men were seen to smuggle arms from their camp and return to town. Some one shouted "Hands up," to two M. P.s in a jeep and the firing then started in which the two policemen were wounded.

It was disclosed that six of the prisoners had criminal records. One of them, James A. Manning, 19, of Detroit, Mich., had served three sentences at hard labor. Another, Clifford Barret, 22, of Orlando, Fla., had been in prison twice, once for flourishing a pistol and trying to escape arrest.

Driver's Nose Is Fractured When Car Strikes Building

Dominick Di Silvestro, 22 years old, 1126 West Grand avenue, incurred a fractured nose yesterday when the automobile he was driving crashed into a building at 1147 West Grand avenue. Previously he had collided with another car driven by Frank Accomando, 624 North May street. Di Silvestro was taken to the Mother Cabrini hospital.

GOTHAM GOLDSTRIPE'S GOT RAYON STOCKINGS DOWN TO A FINE THREAD

During the rayon stocking debut, Gotham watched its fastidious followers. From back of the counters they saw how you drew rayons over your hand and arm to get the sheerness and color effect; that was sleight-of-hand, what you really examined was the heel. You wanted it constructed, mitered, shaped . . . so that it would fit, stay in place on your foot, help relieve the strain of the entire stocking. The heel, Gotham decided, was the crux of a successful rayon stocking. And so, in Gotham Goldstripe you find a beautifully smooth rayon hose balanced on a well-built heel . . . for comfort, beauty, wear.

SENATE'S PEACE STAND TO GIVE WORLD ITS CUE

Showdown on Post-War Plans Is Near.

party favor the principles of the Ball-Burton-Hatch-Hill resolution which he has frequently indorsed, tho more vaguely than hitherto in his St. Louis speech last Friday.

On the other hand if the senate should reject the amendment and the majority of the Republican members should vote against it the result would be interpreted by his opponents as evidence that Willkie is out of step with his country and his party on post-war peace planning. It would be widely judged to be an indication that the Republican convention would reject the Willkie international doctrine in framing its platform and by the same token reject the Willkie candidacy.

Book Defends Administration.

Critics of the state department white book characterize it as an ex parte document designed to establish that President Roosevelt and Secretary of State Cordell Hull had foreseen the second World war for a decade, had been constantly kept informed on the progress of the aggression plot but were unable to thwart it because of the isolationist attitude of the American people. They suggest that congress should call for the hundreds of suppressed diplomatic reports and other documents which they are convinced must have been omitted because they contained evidence at variance with the administration thesis.

Thus there are in the white book none of the reports of Ambassador William A. Dodd on the Hitler program and none of the reports of Ambassador William C. Bullitt from either Moscow, from which he returned at his own request, disillusioned of the doings of the soviets, or Paris, where he is reputed to have given the French government assurances that the United States, while remaining neutral at first, would come into the war eventually against Germany.

Policy Forced to Change.

The white book states our foreign policy was obliged to "move within the framework of a gradual evolution of public opinion in the United States away from the idea of isolation expressed in neutrality legislation toward a realization of the axis design of world conquest." Critics point out that Mr. Roosevelt never vetoed any of the neutrality bills but signed them, tho with critical comments. Wherefore he was accused of straddling the issue.

In his chautauqua address Aug. 14, 1936, the President again was accused of straddling when he said that "We shun political commitments which might entangle us in foreign wars; we avoid connection with the political activities of the League of Nations. We are not isolationists except insofar as we seek to isolate ourselves completely from war. Yet we must remember that so long as war exists on earth there will be some danger that even the nation which most ardently desires peace may be drawn into war."

Hull's Isolationist View.

Secretary Hull expounded orthodox isolationist doctrine when he said to Japanese Ambassador Kensuke Horinouchi, July 10, 1939:

". . . My country . . . abstains from any entanglements or involvements with European countries. If Japan desires to tie herself up with the horribly complicated European controversies, so as to make herself immediately involved in any European war, that still was her business primarily; my government is keeping itself in a detached position, with peace as its supreme objective. And with armaments sufficient for all purposes of security."

COMMISSARY OFFICERS.

The navy is seeking men between 28 and 50 who have had at least five years' experience as manager of a successful hotel or restaurant. Experience in purchasing and handling of food, menu preparation, food conservation and staff direction is required. Candidates should have a knowledge of dietetics and sanitary methods and be thoroly familiar with kitchen organization and equipment. The applicant's experience should have been in establishments serving several hundred guests daily. A college degree is desired. Selected candidates will be assigned to the operation of general messes at shore stations and advanced bases. Apply, Office of Naval Officer Procurement, Board of Trade, Chicago.

C. H. asks: "Is it proper for a service man to remove his hat in the elevator if a lady is present. Does he tip his hat when he greets a lady?"

ANSWER: A man in uniform "uncovers" on very few public occasions, as at a religious service or non-military burial of a friend or acquaintance. He does not remove or tip his hat when greeting a lady or in getting on an elevator or riding in an elevator when ladies are present.

H. F. asks: "Do officers who are our prisoners of war salute our officers?"

ANSWER: Officers who are prisoners are required to salute only officers of a higher or equal rank but will return all salutes.

FIVE SENATORS' CHARGES PUT UP TO CHURCHILL

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Oct. 18 [Monday].—Prime Minister Churchill and Chancellor of the Exchequer John Anderson are to be asked at the next sitting of the house of commons to answer accusations made by the five American senators who recently visited the war fronts in Europe and North Africa.

It was understood that Churchill, in order to avoid dissemination of ill will, will be requested to place on record the British view of the facts, while the chancellor will be asked to give assurance that the British government is not taking advantage of the lend-lease agreement to make a financial profit.

Monday's Daily Mail carries a cartoon showed a wigged British judge, taking a smiling Etonian schoolboy by the hand from a room where the latter has just been whipped. In the background, an American, whip in hand, is seen standing at the door marked "senate courthouse—secret session." The boy tells the judge, "Forget it, judge, maybe they meant well anyway."

NAZIS ARREST 5,000 IN WARSAW, LONDON HEARS

LONDON, Oct. 17 (AP).—The Polish ministry of information said today that the Germans started a manhunt in Warsaw last Wednesday and arrested more than 5,000 persons, shooting those who tried to escape. The fate of those arrested was not announced.

The roundup was believed to have started after some Germans were killed. It began when trucks with elite guard escorts appeared in the streets of Warsaw. The guards first drew a cordon around whole blocks of streets and then tracked down men and women.

ing up, we felt strongly that some changes were due."

British and Russian oil reserves in the Persian gulf area are three times as large as American, Brewster said the committee learned. He said practically all the increase in output in this area was made by American companies until today "we are using our petroleum reserves four times as fast as theirs."

"We found the situation very curious and unfortunate," he said. "I assume the President didn't realize it. The reasons for using more American petroleum than British are:

Two Reasons for Situation.

"1. The reason carried last week by the New York Times: 'Because we hadn't asked for it.' That is the position of officials in London, or

"2. The reason given me, but unofficially: The proposal was made to get more from Britain but the British refused to expand their facilities unless they could do it under lend-lease. The American companies offered to expand, using their own capital, and the military authorities evidently preferred this easier method."

Sen. Brewster said that many things learned by the senators on the trip appeared "pretty devastating of the administration." He said the party had been very careful and would continue to be careful about disclosing information of a military nature. He added that he had "several hundred pages" of stenographic reports of information gathered on the trip.

"SURE—CAR CAN'T FREEZE!"

COLD is a cinch for this Anti-Freeze that outlives HEAT

It's no "great shakes" for any anti-freeze to stand plenty of cold. But even the worst Winter seldom stays steadily cold. Ever so often the weather turns WARM.

And then what will happen?

Nothing much will happen to Super Pyro anti-freeze. Your correct fill of Super Pyro will naturally do its job of standing off any expected cold. And it will normally keep on doing that job for a good long time, because Super Pyro isn't overly weakened by HEAT.

Your engine is a heat engine. Every mile—in any weather—is a mile of heat. Each stop, as you can notice, actually boosts the engine heat. The warmer the day, the more hours of heat, because your engine more quickly reaches normal heat, and more steadily maintains its heat.

Then even if this turns out to be a "Russian Winter," it simply cannot get so cold but what your anti-freeze will still be up against all sorts of HEAT. That's why you'll want your anti-freeze to stand as much heat as possible. Otherwise the protection that you think you have, may be too far gone by the time you need it for safety from cold. This Winter, when repair men and parts are both scarce, get all the protection of Super Pyro anti-freeze. It's all the more cold-safe because it's so heat-safe . . . and besides, it's the enemy of rust. That's how Super Pyro can help you every which way to save your one and only car. You'll save anti-freeze money besides.

What if your family increased fourfold almost overnight?

WHAT if you had four in your family and then suddenly you found you had sixteen?

You'd say "God bless 'em"? Sure!

But what if you couldn't move to larger quarters? Couldn't buy any new beds? Couldn't expand your kitchen facilities? Couldn't get any more help?

If you can imagine yourself in a situation where your family increased from four to sixteen almost overnight, you'll have some idea of what the railroads are going through.

The railroads often have four or even five guests where they formerly had one. They have seating problems, eating problems, sleeping problems, laundry problems and "help" problems.

They can't expand their facilities because the material needed for new coaches and sleeping cars and dining cars is going into the production of tanks and guns and planes and ships.

Two vital jobs are being done. Moving our soldiers and sailors and war traffic is job No. 1. Transportation to keep the home front going is job No. 2.

If you have to travel and don't find things as you did in pre-war days, please don't be too quick to condemn.

Our attitude toward our patrons hasn't changed. Conditions, beyond our control, have changed . . . just as they would in your household if your family increased fourfold almost overnight.

AS A TRIAL-MEMBERSHIP GIFT FROM

THE CLASSICS CLUB

This Beautifully Bound, Superbly Decorated Edition of

THE ILIAD OF HOMER

In the famous translation for modern readers, by Samuel Butler

FOR nearly three thousand years this majestic epic has stirred all mankind. Alexander the Great carried it into battle in a jewelled casket. Now, in this handsome library edition, it is yours free as a gift!

Here is a gorgeous pageant of unforgettable people, mighty adventure, and profound human wisdom. You will chuckle as the gods wrangle over the fate of Paris, abductor of irresistible Helen of Troy; despair with Achilles at Agamemnon's bickering for possession of a captive girl; weep with Hecuba for her fallen sons. You'll feel the excitement of this drama as though you were there—through the magic of Homer, the "blind bard" whom other writers for centuries have tried to match!

Why the Classics Club Offers You This Book Free

WILL you add this lovely volume to your library now—as a membership gift from The CLASSICS CLUB? You are invited to join today . . . and to receive on approval beautifully bound editions of the world's greatest masterpieces, which were chosen by the four distinguished judges shown at the right.

Suppose an expert on the world's greatest reading were to visit your home. No matter how much or how little education you may have had, you would listen enthralled as your famous guest spoke glowingly of the greatest books of all time, what warm friends you can make of them, and how they can help anyone attain a fuller, a richer life.

You would remember, of course, the many times you had resolved to read only the best books. All you needed was someone you could depend upon to tell you how to go about it. And here would be that someone right at your elbow—a great literary authority—whom you could ask about books that would help you either to start a program of good reading or to complete one already begun.

At the request of The Classics Club, four authorities formed themselves into a Selection Committee to choose the masterpieces which offer the greatest enjoyment and value to the "pressed for time" men and women of today. They agreed that every book selected must receive the unanimous vote of all four members of the Committee. And the Classics Club now presentst these great books to you.

Why Are Great Books Called "Classics"?

A true "classic" is a living book that will never grow old. For sheer fascination it can rival the most thrilling modern novel. In its vitality of inspiration it can arouse a new freshness of viewpoint and a new breadth of understanding, so necessary in times of great historical significance like these.

Perhaps you have often wondered how these truly great books "got that way." First, because they are so readable. They would not have lived unless they were read, and they would not have been read unless they were interesting. And, of course, to be interesting they had to be easy to understand. And those are the very qualities which characterize these selections: readability, interest, simplicity.

It is not necessary to have a "higher education" to appreciate these books and, after you read and know them, you will have acquired a broader and more liberal education than most of your business and personal acquaintances. You will have lost any personal concern about an "inferiority complex" and any fear about being the equal of others whose "formal" education is greater than your own.

Only Book Club of Its Kind

The Classics Club is different from all other book clubs in these four ways: 1. Its sole purpose is to distribute to its own members the world's greatest classics at low prices. 2. Its basic price is lower than that of any other book club. 3. Its Charter Members are not obligated to take any specific number of books. 4. All its volumes are bound in attractive uniform Classics Club bindings.

A Trial Membership Invitation to You

You are invited to accept a Trial Membership in The Classics Club. With your first book will be sent an advance notice about future selections. You may reject any book you do not wish.

As a Trial Member you need not take any specific number of books—only the ones you want. No money need be paid in advance, no membership fees. You may cancel membership at any time.

THE CLASSICS CLUB is a lasting worth-while book club offering an economical method of acquiring beautiful, uniformly-bound masterpieces of enduring merit. These expertly chosen volumes will become a complete home library in themselves. For years to come they will provide you and your children with thousands of hours of the most pleasurable and profitable reading.

We suggest that you mail this Invitation Form to us at once. Paper, printing, binding costs are rising, and these low prices—as well as your FREE copy of THE ILIAD OF HOMER—cannot be assured unless you respond promptly. THE CLASSICS CLUB, 330 W. 42nd St., New York 18, N. Y.

NOTE: This De Luxe Edition is luxuriously bound in fine buckram (the same material as used in $5.00 and $10.00 bindings); is richly stamped in genuine gold, which will retain its orignal lustre for years; and has tinted page tops. For books which you and your children will read, and cherish for many years, the De Luxe Edition is most desirable.

SENATORS AGAINST AMERICA.

Two United States senators, Claude Pepper of Florida and Carl A. Hatch of New Mexico, both New Deal Democrats, rose in the senate chamber the other day to pour insults upon the heads of five of their colleagues who recently returned from a visit to the battle fronts with disturbing evidence that American interests are being neglected.

Sen. Gerald P. Nye, North Dakota Republican, precipitated the discussion when he denounced a cartoon in the London Daily Mail depicting the five senators as five monkeys who say: "I saw no good; I heard no good; I said no good; I want no good; I'm up to no good."

Sen. Nye recalled "the alleged representation by Winston Churchill when he was last in the United States to the effect that it would be a tragic catastrophe if the American people failed to elect President Roosevelt for a fourth term and that it would be even worse if he should be reëlected with a Republican congress." Mr. Nye urged the American people to fight back against this political dictation from abroad.

Sen. Pepper defended the English cartoon and said that Sen. Nye's remarks were "intended as a jab in the side of our British ally, a blow at the President of the United States and the present administration in the conduct of the war . . ."

Sen. Hatch quoted the column of a New Deal hack who called the report brought back by the five senators a part of a political plot against Mr. Roosevelt.

The remarks of Pepper and Hatch, a brace of New Deal stooges, ran true to form. What they said would have little significance except for one thing: Here are two men who pretend to represent Americans in the highest legislative body in the country, arguing with the callous indifference to America that might be expected of a pair of British peers.

One of them defends a cartoonist who caricatures five of his colleagues as monkeys because they gave evidence of practices which may bankrupt this nation before the war is over. The other ignores the evidence of wrongdoing to charge a plot against the fellow responsible for it.

These senators are men pledged to protect the sovereignty and the welfare of the United States. Instead, they heel to the British on White House orders.

The warlike bark of Claude Pepper was familiar to Americans before Pearl Harbor. Since then he has been sitting tight in his ringside seat in the senate chamber, making his contribution to the war by helping the rest of the New Dealers destroy the Republic. He is enjoying this war.

American voters have the measure of these Tory politicians who have forsaken their country.

CONVERSATIONS WITH RUSSIA.

It's an odd notion, expressed in Pravda, Communist party newspaper, that the meeting of Secretary Hull with the foreign ministers of Great Britain and Russia, Eden and Molotov, in Moscow is to have nothing to do with political questions, that is with international arrangements and agreements. What Pravda says is official. The soviet government limits the three power conferences, now and later, when Roosevelt, Churchill, and Stalin are to get together, to the conduct of the war.

If Mr. Hull and Mr. Eden are not to talk over political questions, foreign policies, and postwar intentions, they'll wonder why they made the trip. The conduct of the war is not their particular business. Their business is diplomacy, dealing with the peaceable relations of nations with desire to settle controversies and reach agreements. Russia says its frontiers are no more a subject for discussion than the American frontiers or the status of California. The only thing of consequence, therefore, is the defeat of the enemy and how to get on with it. Mr. Molotov in that attitude will not be very helpful.

Russia has not made a secret of its intentions. It aims at the Baltic states, parts of Poland, and other territory, including some of Finland and the Balkans. That program of expansion is at variance with American ideas of a just peace. It conflicts with Mr. Roosevelt's pronouncements, in which Mr. Churchill has been a somewhat silent partner. The freedoms our government has indorsed do not contemplate the overrunning of other nations. How much objection the British government has to the plan of its ally, to which it is bound by a twenty year treaty, is not known. Great Britain ostensibly went to war to aid Poland. It would appear inconsistent for Mr. Churchill to consent that Russia should have what it wants of the country to which England pledged its faith in 1939.

The question will have to be met some time. It may be more troublesome after the war than it is now. The good faith of the other peace making was destroyed when Mr. Wilson discovered that prior understandings of the allies had nullified their acceptance of his fourteen points and of the pre-armistice agreement. Their pledges to him had not canceled their secret understandings. They stood by the latter and betrayed him. The effect of these disclosures of bad faith was the rejection of the league and the treaty in the United States.

Mr. Wilson was more willing to compromise with the double dealers than were most of the people in the United States. Public opinion here resented the deceptions and the discovery that what we had accepted as honest declarations had been taken abroad as only sound effects for war purposes. The American people do not like to be humbugged and gold bricked. They do not like to be told that they are in a great crusade and have it turn out to be a pirates' picnic. They are inclined to believe persons who profess a moral cause and lead generous movements. As much as anybody they resent being taken in as suckers.

Conversations with Russia had better get to a showdown. Mr. Churchill has tried to keep his talk straight. He has done better in this war than Lloyd George did in the other one. The other prime minister had some strange confessions to make as soon as Mr. Wilson was overseas and the peace makers were about to get down to business. Another great deception will not lead to a good peace.

THE FAKE WAR AGAINST INFLATION.

During the third war loan drive Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau argued convincingly that increases in wages during the war confront the country with the threat of inflation. He showed that "seven-eighths of our 145 billion dollar national income this year will go to people earning less than $5,000. This group includes practically all of labor." He asserted that the extra income had to be drawn off in bonds and taxes as the supply of goods and services had gone down.

But when the secretary went to congress with proposals to raise 10½ billions more in taxes, he appeared to have forgotten these figures. Fred Vinson of the office of economic stabilization, another administration witness, produced figures somewhat at variance with those of the secretary of the treasury. Mr. Morgenthau urged congress to make increases in individual tax rates, but especially those applying to the higher brackets. He proposed that the tax on $100,000 income be raised from $69,665 at present to $82,575. In addition the receiver of such an income owes the treasury $17,416 as the unforgiven part of his 1942 tax. On the higher incomes the total taxes to be paid runs considerably over 100 per cent of one year's income.

Keep in mind Mr. Morgenthau's expressed alarm about labor income and note that he asked congress to repeal the Victory tax. This would excuse 9 million in the under $5,000 a year group from paying any income tax. There was an explanation of this move in the speech delivered in Chicago Friday by Randolph E. Paul, general counsel. Mr. Paul said: "In 1932 we had slightly less than 2,000,000 taxable individual returns. There will be about 43,000,000 taxable returns for the year 1943. . . . While our tax system might safely irritate 2,000,000 of our citizens, it will run serious risks if it irritates 20 times that number." A startling admission!

Mr. Morgenthau also proposed when he appeared at the congressional hearing that if social security taxes are raised next year, as is provided for in existing law, "the income taxes should be made substantially lower than I have suggested to avoid an excessive tax burden on the lower income groups."

The increase in labor income threatens the country with inflation, according to Mr. Morgenthau, who told congress "I pass along for your consideration provision for a post-war refund of part of the tax. Such a refund should benefit principally the lower income groups."

Those in the lower income groups, the secretary of the treasury said, have the bulk of the income this year, but the treasury department is dead set against the sales tax because it would hit hardest those in the income groups principally enriched.

Income tax rates have always been moderate on those in the lower income groups. But when the pay-as-you-go tax was passed last June, taxpayers in the lowest income group were relieved of paying any tax at all on 1942 incomes, while all others were given an obligation to pay one-fourth of their tax for that year.

The principal financial officer of the government says that there is danger of inflation because one group has seven-eighths of the income of the country. But he directs his tax at the other group. Obviously, the Roosevelt administration talks about heading off inflation but doesn't mean it. The reason back of this is that the man who planned or inspired almost every economic move of the Roosevelt administration, John Maynard Keynes, "the Englishman who rules America," is an out and out inflater and he is on the job right now at Washington. As Great Britain is our debtor to the extent of billions, it promotes the interests of his country to bring about inflation here.

DEAD ON THE VINE.

Once again Mr. Willkie's talents as an advance agent for himself have been exerted to draw attention to a feeble performance. With a great hurrah he descended upon St. Louis a few evenings ago as some years ago he had descended upon Philadelphia and Elwood, only to prove a disappointment even to his more ardent admirers. He had little to add to his previous declarations beyond the suggestion that America should marry the world to reform it, a program that is not likely to appeal to the good sense of his countrymen, however warmly the scheme may be applauded overseas.

The St. Louis performance served one useful purpose, however. It did disclose that Mr. Willkie is dead on the vine. His former followers want no more of him. He will not serve Mr. Roosevelt's purposes again. If the Democrats are to win next year, they will have once again to gain control of the Republican convention but this time Mr. Willkie will not be the New Deal's Republican candidate. He's thru even for the purposes of serving as Mr. Roosevelt's stooge.

THE WAXWORKS PANTHEON.

The death of Tussaud of the waxworks [not the original madame but her great-grandson] should cause multitudes of pre-war trans-Atlantic trippers to drop into a vein of nostalgic reminiscence. After seeing the Tower of London, the American tourist always wanted to be taken to the waxworks, which have been mentioned in hundreds of English novels, and we have never heard any returned pilgrim say that it was a bad show. Even the generation bred on sound movies has accepted this silent, motionless, and morguelike exhibition as an edifying and stirring experience.

* * *

The latest first hand report on Tussaud's in this column's files is dated 1937, when the museum was on the Marylebone road, a site where it had flourished since 1884. "I was just thrilled to death," says the letter writer, aged 21. "It is a wonderful sight. The figures are so lifelike." At that time Tussaud's included among its famous contemporaries Hitler and Gandhi as political leaders; Jack Dempsey as a notable athlete, and Edward VIII. and Mrs. Wallis Simpson as examples of the pangs of love. The chamber of horrors, containing tableaux of murders and executions, was in the basement, and the floors above were populous with British monarchs and statesmen, American Presidents, and other praiseworthy characters. Figures disguised as customers stood in locations where they were frequently asked the time of day or the way to the powder room.

* * *

Marie Tussaud, the founder, was a Swiss, born Grosholtz. She had an uncle named Curtius who had built up an excellent waxworks trade in Paris with his "Cavern of Famous Thieves" in the Palais Royal. She learned the technique of wax portraiture from him and went into business for herself at the time of the French revolution. After marrying and divorcing a certain Tussaud she moved her collection to London in 1800, and her name has been an English institution ever since. Her first permanent showplace in London was on Baker street, on which a young consulting detective named Sherlock Holmes took lodgings in 1880 or 1881. Perhaps it was the Tussaud tradition on Baker street that gave Mr. Holmes his predilection for wax images. Mme. Tussaud died in 1850.

* * *

The waxworks idea spread over the world, of course, but its box office value seemed to deteriorate with travel. Tussaud's of London has had no rival worth mentioning. In the 1890s Chicago had a taste of this form of entertainment at the Eden Musée on Wabash avenue, but old timers seldom mention it among the glories of the past.

SECOND LIEUTENANT BLUES.

Second lieutenants I have known
(The group has lately greatly grown),
Are not completely, I must own,
Dependable!

Of energy they have excess;
Of brains, I gather, rather less.
Their brawn, misguided, but, O, yes,
Commendable!

I shudder at the things I know
The newest, truest figures show;
It pains me that I should be so
Expendable!

History of the Gold Coast—XLVII.

By 1896 the new section of the Lake Shore drive between Ohio and Oak streets had been completed and the lake bottom filled in between it and the old shore line as far north as Pearson street. "Captain" Streeter was still holding forth in his scow on the Farwell lot. Streeter was a short, slightly built, rusty-looking gent of 59 with wine bottle shoulders and a reddish, walrus mustache. He usually wore a Prince Albert coat and an old plug hat which, it was said, he wore when he was awake and when he was in bed. No matter where people saw him, the plug hat was always on his head. He smoked cigars on the chain system, and his manner was truculent.

He was now successfully disputing the efforts of Farwell and others to dispossess him. He boldly proclaimed that the tract was outside of the jurisdiction of the state of Illinois and the city of Chicago. He took formal possession and posted it, and announced the tract's organization into the district of Lake Michigan, and set up a court to try lawbreakers. He talked much of his great plans for it. He was going to build a tower 400 feet square and 1,152 feet high at the foot of Superior street. He was now peddling beer to the anglers and rubbernecks that hung about his shack on Sundays and holidays.

Farwell protested long and loudly, and in the spring of 1899 a small detail of policemen was sent to dispossess Streeter. Maria, his helpmate, showered them with scalding water. The city now took decisive action. On the morning of May 7 Inspector Max Heidelmeier of the Chicago avenue station and 200 policemen marched to the place, arrested Streeter and his 14 nondescript followers, and destroyed the shack. Three officers were wounded in the fray. The whole gang was promptly bailed out by one E. C. Harter.

LESSEN TOXIN ABSORPTION IN DELIRIUM.

DELIRIUM may occasion considerable alarm. It is not a disease but merely an event in the course of some ailment. The episode may be looked upon as an acute poisoning, with the nervous system chiefly involved. The victim is confused mentally. Restless, even violent—with incoherent speech—he may exhibit hallucinations, illusions, or fantastic visions.

As we would expect, no two patients will react alike. A few are extremely susceptible, particularly if they are highly emotional. In other words, more toxin is required to upset one than another.

Physicians anticipate trouble whenever metabolism is seriously disturbed as, for example, in the presence of a high fever. For this reason, in an infection, wherein tissue is being destroyed at a rapid rate, we employ various methods to lower temperature. The sufferer is not only more comfortable, but sponge baths and certain drugs will hasten elimination and hence lessen the absorption of noxious substances.

If there is no immediate explanation for the symptoms presented, the doctor will investigate the possibility of a systemic disorder. Uremia [the result of kidney disease], diabetes, and lead poisoning may be thought of.

Sometimes there is but a short step between delirium and unconsciousness. Should coma occur, we will need to make a speedy search for a basic malady, an injury, or possibly a broken blood vessel within the skull. Drugs must be kept in mind constantly as well as gases such as carbon monoxide.

No one who is "out of his head" can be left alone even for a minute. As a rule, the condition will pass quickly. An enema to clear the lower bowel may be helpful, as will an ice cap to the head. Fluids are our best flushing agents and if the kidneys are reasonably intact, large quantities of liquids may be given by mouth or directly into a vein.

We realize, of course, that excitability will, if allowed to persist for long, jeopardize recovery. The victim can wear himself out and burn up so much energy that there is little left with which to fight the original disorder. In such circumstances, the administration of sedatives may well be considered.

One of the most useful devices is to place the patient in a tub of tepid water, arranging for a gentle continuous flow. Mild massage may be practiced during immersion, which may continue for an hour or two. Under this type of management, not infrequently a natural sleep will ensue—with complete clearing of the mental processes upon awakening.

Delirium tremens may appear in a chronic alcoholic who seems perfectly normal otherwise, should a sharp drop in resistance present itself. The condition may surely be expected when a dipsomaniac exhibits insomnia and marked restlessness, following a fracture or a severe injury of any sort. In this situation, the ideal remedy is high vitamin feedings.

ANESTHETIZING.

D. C. writes: How does an anesthetic work?

REPLY.

The chemical enters the blood and thus is distributed to all parts of the body. The chief effect is upon the nervous system, wherein consciousness is lost and the sense of pain disappears. The depressing effect may be likened to alcohol, only in greater degree.

TOOTH EXTRACTIONS.

H. J. writes: Can a person become hard of hearing from having too many teeth extracted?

REPLY.

No. Temporary deafness may result because the ensuing swelling involves the eustachian tubes. Unless these structures are open, sounds will be distant and muffled.

SORE HEEL.

C. E. D. writes: What would cause the heel to ache from time to time and be tender to pressure?

REPLY.

A tendon attaches to the bone at this point. A bursa [pad] is usually present and is designed to serve as a cushion. Probably inflammation of the tendon sheath.

DISCOLORED TONGUE.

Mrs. A. M. writes: What causes a black, fuzzy tongue?

REPLY.

LIP READING.

T. W. M. writes: Is it possible for an aged person to learn lip reading?

REPLY.

Age is no bar. The individual must be a good observer, however.

Rosin in the Wings.

The Ballet Russe is dancing on a new plywood floor at the opera house. The floor is so new that even when the première ballerina comes down on it like a drifting snowflake, it squeaks mercilessly. On opening night Friday the ballet danced a Chopin nocturne, and the noise of the footwork at times outdid the music. "Not Chopin," the town wit mumbled as the curtain fell, "Shoe-pan." As a result the dancers dip their feet not once, but twice, into the flat box of powdered rosin in the wings before they go on, and some, the old school Russians, make the sign of the cross. But even this is not entirely successful. Saturday during the performance of Tschaikowsky's Nutcracker suite, that wonderful ballet of living candy, Danilova came leaping into the wings after her exquisite dance as the sugar plum fairy. "The cello goes pluck, pluck, pluck," she said, gesticulating wildly, "and the floor goes squeak, squeak, squeak. O, the poor cello . . . I drown it out."

Here is the ballerina in the classical white tarletan ballet dress and pink satin slippers literally putting her nose to the floor while she elevates her left leg to where her head was. Here is the slender boy in a brief blue sweater and black tights holding onto a rail as he warms up his muscles with some intricate footwork that would shame any baseball catcher. Here is the danseur noble, archaic name for a leading man, aloof, alone, and immersed in supple achievement of the difficult entre chats six, that feat in which he crosses his feet three times in the air [as you or I would cross our fingers] before they touch the floor again. Here is the little Russian wardrobe mistress, a row of safety pins dangling from her checked gingham dress as she plucks at the skirts of the girls to see that they are correctly fastened, or looks at the necklines to see that no lipstick is smeared on gossamer fabrics. Here is the corps de ballet, most of them in bedroom slippers and carrying their gold or white or pink dancing slippers to keep them clean until the last minute [soiled slippers mean a $5 fine]. Here is the pianist, who has never danced a step, yet, having survived 20 years of ballet as accompanist, knows every step and turn in the repertory. It was 20 years ago, in London, that she was told to report to a given address for a piano audition. She went. Inside the house were Arthur Rubinstein, the great Diaghileff, and Manuel DeFalla, the composer. "Here," said DeFalla, and he handed her the manuscript score of "Three Cornered Hat," his new ballet. "Play this." She did, and has remained with the ballet ever since.

Over to one side are some strange props. A wonderful horse made of window screening with a mane of wheat. A row of graduated geese with fat yellow bills and blue necks. A long gondola with the head of a swan. "Here," the regisseur, the man who directs it all, is saying to a fat little man in street clothes. "You get on thees, poosh with thees pole, and you go — zoom — across the stage." "But how?" the little fat man is protesting. "The wheels," the regisseur is saying patiently. "The wheels under the bottom beneath. They poosh for you."

By now the warmer-uppers have vanished. "Five minutes," the regisseur is calling. "Two minutes!" . . . "One minute!" And then "House out!" And you realize the house lights are dimming, are out. Backstage the hubbub has been intense, but now back from the orchestra pit wafts "The Star Spangled Banner," and suddenly backstage is frozen. All stand where they are, the Russian ballerina, the Polish pianist, the British danseur noble, the American Indian girl. And caught in one wing, withdrawing her foot from the box of rosin, is Danilova, the première danseuse, a fringed blue shawl around her bare shoulders. She is standing very straight as are they all, and facing the orchestra pit the curtain hides, and she is standing on her pink satin toes. She remains on them until the last strain dies away. Then the final call comes: "Curtain!"

THE LAW ON THE PEARL HARBOR TRIALS.

Mound City, Ill., Oct. 12.—Your attention is called to the 39th article of war and the 61st article governing the navy, which provide that unless, by reason of having absented himself, or of other manifest impediment, an accused shall not have been amenable to justice, a court martial cannot try or punish any person for any offense which appears to have been committed more than two years before the issuance of the order for the trial.

"Absented himself" has been held to mean absence from the United States, and "other manifest impediment" has been held to mean such impediment only as operates to prevent the military or naval court from exercising its jurisdiction over the offender, such as being a prisoner of war or being imprisoned under a civil sentence.—[In re Davidson, 4 Fed. 507; 14 Op. Atty. Gen. 265.]

There is no provision for waivers such as it is claimed that Gen. Short and Adm. Kimmel have signed, and such exception cannot be read into the laws.—[See Harris' case, 14 Op. Atty. Gen., page 52.]

The binding effect of these waivers will not be for the secretaries of war and navy to say, but will be left up to the courts which try them.—[In re Zimmerman, 30 Fed. 176.]

The statute of limitations continues to run, notwithstanding the prosecution is withheld by agreement.—[Comm. vs. Werner, 5 Pa. Super. 249; People vs. Ayhens, 85 Cal. 86; 22 Corpus Juris Secundum 365.]

Joe Crain,
County Judge.

TO KEEP HER WARM.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—I see now that the government is going to tax furs 25 per cent, instead of the present tax of 10 per cent. I am a working girl, a stenographer, to be exact. I have been buying bonds. I have been working hard, and I have been longing for a fur coat for a long time. To me, a fur coat is not a luxury, for I am planning to spend less than $200 for my coat. I need a fur coat to keep me warm when I shall have to stand on cold corners this winter, waiting and watching crowded buses go by.

How the treasury department can consider furs a luxury is a mystery to me. How they will expect me to buy a fur coat and pay a 25 per cent tax on top of it is a mystery also. There certainly should be protest to our congressmen against this type of tax, which so unfairly discriminates against women like myself. I can understand that a mink coat might be a luxury, but how can a fur coat costing less than $200 be a luxury? Miss F. Howard.

FIXING THE PUNISHMENT.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—Recently The Tribune advocated hanging Hirohito. That's too exclusive for an occasion bringing benefit and satisfaction to the world, and hanging wouldn't give any Jap time to begin to recall and repent his sins. Tojo and a host of others should be invited. An excursion should be run into Bering sea to a point 50 miles or so from land or floating ice and the Japs made to walk the plank.

The Old Pirate.

WORK WHILE WAITING.

Impatient.

IN DEFENSE OF OCD.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—R. J. Nugent, in your columns for Oct. 13, complains of OCD as a threat to our liberties. It is regrettable that such a red herring should be dragged across the path of a movement that has been so well developed and successfully operated in Chicago that other cities look upon it with envy.

I have just returned from conferences in the east dealing with war garden accomplishments. Everywhere I was met with the query, "How have you managed to secure such excellent coöperation and remarkable garden results thru OCD aid?" Of course, the answer was plain. In no other city is the nonpolitical block organization so well established, even tho, as Mr. Nugent says, "27 block captains resigned in a three month period." Since there are 18,000 block captains in Chicago, it is conceivable that 27 of them might have been drafted in the three months time or that other activities caused them to drop their OCD duties.

Chicago leads all other large cities of the country in war gardens, and this is conceded to be the case largely because of OCD coöperation. Another proof of the point in question is to be seen on many street corners thruout Chicago. I have conducted numerous groups of out of town people to inspect war gardens in all parts of Chicago. Almost universally they remarked upon the interesting and often very beautiful block installations at street corners, with flagpoles and usually floral decorations. Again the comment was always the same: "We do not have this spirit in our city because we do not have the civilian defense organization that you have in Chicago."

Perhaps if Mr. Nugent and others like him would participate in their local block civilian defense activities in a spirit of service and coöperation their fears would melt away.

Fred G. Heuchling,
Assistant Director, War Garden Dept., Office of Civilian Defense.

LIMITING INCOME.

Chicago, Oct. 15.—One does not have to have an income of $25,000, earned or inherited, to be opposed to any restriction on income for the reason that any such limitation would create a moneyed aristocracy in this country by perpetuating the present wealth class while denying the accumulation of wealth to all others. Limitation of income is just another way of saying "there's getting to be too many rich people like ourselves, so let's form a club to keep it the way it is by drawing up a law to keep the present group exclusive."

W. J. Garrity.

FRIEND OF THE PEOPLE

MISSPELLED NAME.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—The authorities tell my son that the only birth certificate they can give him is one on which our family name is misspelled, because the doctor who reported the birth wrote out the name incorrectly. The doctor is dead. Under such circumstances, how can my son establish the fact that the certificate is his? B. G.

Affidavits should suffice to explain the discrepancy between names.

CELEBRATE 60TH ANNIVERSARY OF THEIR WEDDING

Four Generations Attend Bern Family Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Bern, 4730 Greenwood avenue, celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary yesterday in typical Bern fashion. The house was full of family, and the sky was full of sun, both time honored anniversary institutions.

The highlight of the anniversary was a family dinner at the home of a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon W. Foster, 4950 Chicago Beach drive. There the Berns' eight children, eight grandchildren, and the first member of the fourth generation, 11 month old John Whitbeck Foster, gathered to commemorate the occasion.

Recalls Honeymoon Hoax.

Mr. Bern—tall, straight, and much younger than his 80 years—recalled that he took his wife, Kathleen, east on a honeymoon, and that he went to great lengths to impress her favorably.

"When my money reached an uncomfortable low," he said, "I sent myself a telegram. I ordered myself to return immediately to Chicago and added 'urgent business.'"

He signed the name of the vice president of the Chicago and Alton railroad, by whom he was employed as a secretary.

Mrs. Bern, 79, attended yesterday's celebration attired in a smart, black beaded gown with an orchid perched on her shoulder.

Bern resolved to retire at 40 to do as he pleased. In the meantime he studied law, was admitted to the bar and started to practice.

Settles Down to Retirement.

At 40, tho, he became preponderantly selective about the cases he accepted, and took only those that interested him. Then he dabbled in real estate. A few years ago he settled down to "grow old."

Admittedly he has a long time to go to equal the longevity of his father, Michael, who lived to be 103. The elder Bern, a native of Ireland, came to Chicago in 1833 and remained until his death.

ROBBED OF $40 ON STREET.

Daniel Todd, 4894 North Ashland avenue, reported to police yesterday that an armed robber forced him into a passageway near Clark street and Foster avenue and robbed him of $40.

EXTEND MAILING DATE TO TROOPS JUST LEAVING U.S.

An extension to Dec. 10 of the deadline for mailing Christmas parcels to soldiers who recently left home stations for overseas was announced yesterday by the foreign department of the postoffice and Maj. Gen. H. S. Aurand, commanding general of the 6th service command.

Only persons with official notification of the soldier's change of address can post parcels, which must conform to the rule governing parcels on which the deadline closed Oct. 15. Parcels must weigh no more than five pounds, are limited to 15 inches in length and to 36 inches in combined length and girth.

Senders must present the notification of change of address when they appear at the postoffices, Maj. Kenneth H. Donnelly, postal officer for the 6th service command, said. Only one package may be mailed.

At the postoffice, officials warned that the deadline for mailing Christmas parcels to navy, marine corps, and coast guard personnel on foreign duty remains Nov. 1.

SWAP your idle electric appliances for War Stamps

U.S. WAR STAMPS

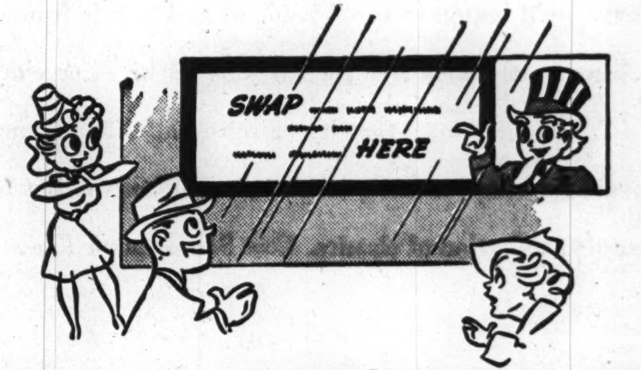
Round up your idle electric appliances . . . turn them in to your Electrical Dealer . . . your neighbors need them badly!

Here's your chance to practice the good neighbor policy! Because electric appliance manufacturers have "gone to war" many war-busy families in your own neighborhood are without a single iron, toaster, vacuum cleaner or washer. But you can help these families by joining in this patriotic Swap Plan.

This is all you do: Hunt up all your idle electric appliances—regardless of their age or working condition—and take them to the nearest Electrical Dealer participating in this plan. If they are too large to carry, phone him. He will pay you for the appliances in U. S. War Stamps.

After making any necessary repairs, your dealer will re-sell these appliances to the families who need them.

So to help your neighbors—your country—and yourself—start right now to search the attic . . . the basement . . . and the cupboards for any appliances you are not using. Rush them to your Electrical Dealer who is waiting to swap war stamps for the appliances you turn in.



Rush your idle appliances to your Electrical Dealer displaying this sign

The Electrical Dealer displaying the special red, white and blue insignia is cooperating in this patriotic Swap Plan. For every Electric Appliance you bring in—regardless of condition—he will pay you its value in war stamps.

Go on a hunt for idle appliances today. Perhaps you'll uncover an iron, a toaster, electric clock, waffle iron, or other elecric appliance you've forgotten about...or stored away when you received that new one as a gift. Get them to your Electrical Dealer. He'll do the rest.

Country Home Scene of Sale for Hull House

BY JUDITH CASS.

THE directors of the Hull House shop make it a point to find a new and attractive country home in which to hold sales of goods. The next in a long series of homes that have been opened to the public for that purpose is the Lake Forest residence of Mrs. Bryan S. Reid. There, from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. on Saturday, Oct. 30, Hull House merchandise will be displayed.

The Reids' house is not a new one, having belonged formerly to Mrs. Leverett Thompson, but it has been changed to suit the new owners' tastes and is noted particularly for its gardens and the hedge surrounding the property. The secret of the hedge's always perfect appearance lies in Mrs. Reid's use of a paint brush, for if a brown spot shows she promptly paints it green.

The younger members of the Hull House board are running this sale, with Mrs. Philip D. Armour Jr., Mrs. Robert S. Macdonald, and Mrs. Anthony Ryerson in charge. Appropriate wedding and Christmas presents, practical table settings, scented soaps, and gifts for the new baby are among the lovely things offered for sale.

Mrs. John Andrews King and Mrs. Austin H. Niblack are giving luncheons on the day of the sale. Because her house will be so crowded with the display, Mrs. Reid and her husband will be the dinner guests of Mrs. William E. Clow Jr. on the eve of the sale.

Here and There.

Lights will be blazing at the Studebaker theater tonight for the opening of the army emergency relief show, "The Army, Play by Play," and many of Chicago's usual first nighters will be in the audience.

Volunteers from the Service club, recruited by Mrs. Robert Cavenaugh, will sell souvenir programs. In the program selling corps at the opening will be Miss Nancy Davis, Miss Carol Fox, Miss Mary Jane Brummel and Miss Marikaye Howard, all Service club members, and also Miss Peggy Walls and Miss Priscilla Payne.

Drama lovers will be out in force for the opening of the second play in the Theater Guild-American Theater society subscription series, "Without Love," on Oct. 25 at the Erlanger theater. Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Adams, Frank McNair, Mrs. Errett Van Nice, Mrs. Robert E. Ross, Mrs. Emmons Blaine, the Jacob Bischofs, the Orville J. Taylors, Blake Blair, and Mr. and Mrs. Ferre C. Watkins are some of the "first nighters" who will be there. Highlighting the evening will be the presence of the author, Philip Barry, his wife, and the producer-director, Arthur Hopkins. Constance Bennett has the leading role.

When Mrs. William McCormick Blair returns next Saturday from the east, she will bring a first-hand account of her latest grandson, Francis Iglehart Blair. The second son of Lt. and Mrs. Edward McCormick Blair [Elizabeth Iglehart] was born on Oct. 14 in Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore, Md. The little boy has an elder brother, Edward Jr. Lt. Blair is stationed with the navy in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Towle [Patty Ellwood] became the parents of a son, Joseph Ellwood, on Oct. 10. The baby is a grandson of the late E. Perry Ellwood of De Kalb. Mrs. Towle's brother, I. L. Ellwood II., and his wife and family have

Women in War Work

—By Kate Massee—

The Amertorp corporation, United States naval ordnance plant, a subsidiary of the American Can company situated in Chicago, employs hundreds of women in war work.

Women constitute 33 per cent of the Amertorp personnel, which is engaged, in shifts around the clock, in assembly of aircraft, surface craft, and underwater craft torpedoes for the navy.

When the plant went into full operation a little more than a year ago, it was evident to the directors that the man power situation would make the hiring of women imperative. An intensive training program was set up for men and women alike, to convert beauty operators and salesmen, housewives and clerks into technicians. Fifty per cent of the traineers have been women, who have received instruction in six technical and high schools.

Women are engaged in virtually all operations at Amertorp. They operate the profiling machines which reduce forged propellers to exact specifications, file turbine wheels, analyze raw materials in the metallurgical laboratory, and inspect small and large parts. They also do burring, assembly work, and hand-lapping, a process which fits small parts together with precision.

The women employes are of all ages [with a minimum of 18 years], from all peace time professional and domestic fields, and work six days a week, eight hours a day. When they come to work they enter a miniature city with all facilities for working and personal comfort.

Employes enjoy a complete cafeteria in which meals are served around the clock. A monthly house organ, the "Silver Streak," is edited by Mrs. Polly Peterson.

Another convenience for employes is a service department which arranges for workers' gasoline, tire, and safety shoe rations, their money orders and other personal details which would be time-taking outside working hours. A fully staffed dispensary and infirmary also is maintained.

Almost without exception, women employes of Amertorp have family members in the services. One of them, Miss Helene Beck, has six brothers in the army, four of them in the air forces. Three of the latter are overseas. Miss Beck started her training in October, last year, and went into the shop as a junior assembler in December.

Mrs. R. J. McEvoy, who has two sons in the service, demonstrates the war time axiom that women war workers go into industry from the home, after proper training. Mrs. McEvoy was a housewife before she entered war work. Miss Mollie Ware and Miss Norma Novock were beauty operators in peace time, and Miss Ruth Carlson raised Manx cats.

Miss Margaret Miller, who joined the company's ranks in November, last year, gave up a job as a buyer of women's ready-to-wear clothing when her brother joined the army. Now she's filing turbine wheels.

Mrs. Gertrude Karel, who is the mother of two children, and has a brother in the army anti-aircraft service, was the first woman at Amertorp to work on propeller assembly.

New Column for Problems of Young Set

BY MAUREEN DALY.

[Copyright: 1943: By The Chicago Tribune.]

This is for you. All those questions you've hashed over a coke in the drugstore, knocked around with your best friend, or have kept to yourself, mulling and moaning and not getting anywhere—let's get them decided right now. This is your chance. What if that fine hunk of man that's been your big moment these last few weeks did give you the brushoff—what say?—are you going to let it spoil your whole year? What's this about your hitting a new low in Latin class and flunking out in second year algebra? Are you dating too much or are you not dating enough? Are you concentrating too much or not at all? What goes with the smoothness and smartness these days? You've got to stay on the beam, so let's talk this thing over. Now is your chance to shoot the breeze.

This is your column and it will say what you want it to say. We can't have the front page with banner headlines, and we can't crowd our way into the comic section, but this column is yours. We can talk here as privately as in the back booth at the drugstore. All those problems like what to wear to the next dance, which foreign language to take next year, and whether to go separate ways with your ready-steady or to stick it out as a gruesome twosome will seem simple when you see them solved in black and white—just send them in. The very question that has been bothering you may be the same one that has had other high school seniors tossing on their pillows these recent weeks.

We've picked up a few good ideas from smoothies who know the score and we'd like to pass them along to you. They're helpful hints that will help you to come out with a superman for the next school dance, top the list as a slick chick, or make your future employer realize that you are just the boy to handle that Saturday job. We'd like to know what new fads are sweeping your crowd—overalls and big plaid shirts, straw farmer hats and pigtails braided with daises—and all the rest of the things that make drug store-locker room talk. We'd like to know, too, what you think makes a fellow or a girl really smooth—what puts them either under the table or right out there on the solid beam.

Maybe you've got serious trouble. Your mother says you're too young to have dates or your father says he's going to have no son in his house getting moony-eyed over girls. Or maybe you feel that you're a sad specimen just because you have nothing to do on Friday nights but sit home and work crossword puzzles and maybe all the boys in letter sweaters are crowding around some one else's locker after school. Could be that the girl you have been dating was just any other girl and now all of a sudden you've got love and you don't know just what to do about it. Well, we'd like to know. We really would.

What about school? Are you just easing thru by smiling at the right time and emptying the wastebasket for the teacher? And what about those plans of yours—that Sarah Bernhardt urge you get every time you see a good movie; that story you want to tell if you could only find the right words; those secret thoughts about Grant Wood and a good set of paints and brushes. There are so many things you want to do and now is the time to start using those feelings that give you big dealer dreams and make you restless in study hall. Mozart was writing music at the age of 11 and Stephen Vincent Benet sold his first story at 12—who said you can't do it?

So you see what we mean? This column is for you, all for you. Make it your round table, your clearing house, or your wailing wall. We want your coöperation, your comments, and, above all, your letters. Here it is. Whether you call it a gabble-gathering, a bull session, chewing the rag, or just plain talking it over—it's all yours. This growing-up is full of problems; let's use this column to get them settled right now—from now on we're strictly on the solid side.

Discussion About Peace Scheduled by Church Club

The Business Women's club of the Fourth Presbyterian church will hear Dr. Paul S. Johnson, executive secretary of the Presbytery of Chicago, discuss "What Makes for Peace" at an 8 p. m. meeting tomorrow at the church. The Rev. Kenneth N. Hildebrand will conduct a Bible study session at 7 p. m.

Thru the Looking Glass

Special creams for use on the neck and throat have much to recommend them; they're ordinarily much richer than general lubricating creams, and the throat and neck are areas that can stand super-rich lubricants. The skin on these parts usually is of a different texture than that of the face, likely to be coarser and much more inclined to dryness. Despite this fact it is often slipped over casually when the face is being oiled. The unhappy results are that the neck and throat show signs of age long before they should.

One of the most effective creams we know for use on the throat and neck is a heavy, yellowish one, gooey and rich almost to the point of stickiness. But it nicely misses any unpleasant feeling, even tho its richness is apparent to the fingertips and it is smooth and runny enough for easy application. Applied regularly, it will do much to keep the throat and neck in good condition, soft and pretty looking.

For best results, the skin should be made receptive to the cream by opening the pores with applications of very warm [never hot] water. Slather the cream on and work it in with light, upward and outward movements. And don't forget the back of the neck. Upswept hairdos have revealed many an uncared for nape.

There's a Kick or Two in 'The Sky's the Limit'

"THE SKY'S THE LIMIT."
Directed by Edward H. Griffith.
Presented at the Palace.

THE CAST.

Fred	Fred Astaire
Joan	Joan Leslie
Harriman	Robert Benchley
Reg	Robert Ryan
Mrs. Fisher	Elizabeth Patterson
Canteen Lady	Marjorie Gateson

Freddie Slack and his orchestra.

By Mae Tinée.

Good Morning!

How, you ask, do Joan Leslie's aspiring feet fit into the slippers vacated by Fred Astaire's former dancing co-stars, Ginger Rogers and Rita Hayworth? . . . In answer I'll hedge a little.

With practice and experience Joan will be completely adequate. Today she is charming, appealing—and a little unsure of herself—which last was to be expected. . . . While playing straight, she relaxes. Dancing with Mr. Astaire, she seems rather stiff. But the master's skill and polish gloss this over and you may be sure that in their next picture the little Leslie will be an also ran to nobody.

The decidedly "different" plot projects the tale of a Flying Tiger ace, who, after the unit has been disbanded, comes to the United States to join the naval air force. With several Tigers, he's scheduled for a hero tour which, he decides, is not for him. His 10 day furlough shall be his own. . . . He skips out, buys a western outfit and, in a New York night club, discovers Joan photographing nightfliers for a gossip magazine and being very bitter because of it. SHE wants to get pictures of men and women who are making war time history.

Joan finds herself followed and adored by the strange young man in the trick suit who, apparently, toils not neither does he spin. She is very hard—but he is undeterred. . . . The manner in which the Boy wins Girl's love and championship—and then decides to let both go by the board — makes interesting story, song and dance stuff.

An impressionistic solo dance following Fred's grim decision provides one of the picture's big moments. It occurs on the last night of his furlough and proceeds from a basement joint to the polished bar of a ritzy night club, unoccupied, save by the help, by the time the lonely, despairing, and inebriated young man arrives.

There, there! Cheer up! This dance doesn't conclude the action.

Robert Benchley's immense as the bumbling, human publisher boss who loves Joan, too, and is a lot smarter than he appears to the naked eye. . . . And, GY-URLS! Lookit! There's that handsome Robert ["Behind the Rising Sun"] Ryan in the cast as another Flying Tiger!

"The Sky's the Limit" is handsomely mounted and well directed. Spot songs are "My Shining Hour" and "One for My Baby and One for the Road."

Looking at Hollywood

—By Hedda Hopper—

Hollywood, Cal., Oct. 17 [Special].—For years Hollywood biggies have been trying to buy the life of David Belasco. Gene Buck's taking time out to write it. That really should make a picture. He was the wizard of 'em all. Few people got into that ivory tower of his on top of his theater to learn how the old boy lived. Gene was one of them. You know, Belasco bought more pianos than almost any other man in America. His first gift, instead of a diamond bracelet, was always a player piano. Yes, he was that fond of music. . . . You know how we do things in Hollywood—bigger and better. Well, "Duffy's Tavern" is growing the same way. I don't know whether it will be better, but it's certainly going to be bigger. Paramount's turning it into an all-star musical. . . . Bette Davis wanted to carry a couple of bags costing $250 each in a picture, and asked for an O. K. from the wardrobe head, who said, "Huh-uh. If I asked Jack Warner to O. K. a thing like that, he'd throw his wife at my head." . . . No chance of Merle Oberon playing Mme. Chiang Kai-shek on the screen.

More of Same.

Maj. Knox Manning, just returned from Italy, tells me that the night before our men landed on Italian soil for the invasion they were shown the picture of Father Duffy in the "Fighting 69th" with graves in the rain, etc. Nice cheering film to show men going into battle. . . . Knox got caught in a panzer movement and spent most of his ten days in Italy throwing himself in the sand. He brought more praise for Bob Hope, who couldn't do enough for the boys over there. The four nights Hope was in Bizerte it was raided, and as he arrived in Palermo, Sicily, that city had a raid. In other words, he was where the bullets were flying.

Here He Comes.

Rep. Martin Dies is on his way here the end of the month to get the history of our "pink" writers and their efforts to get their kind of propaganda on the screen. . . . Eddie Goulding, who wrote the script of "Never Goodbye," Joan Crawford's next, in New York, is on his way west to let her read it. . . . Gary Moore, comic and co-star of "Schnozzle" Durante, couldn't hold out against David Selznick. He's signed an actor-writer contract with him. . . . Twentieth's going ahead with plans for Gene Tierney's next, now that her baby daughter has made her debut. . . . Wonder what happened to the life of Billy Sunday James Cagney was going to do. Some years ago the late Douglas Churchill kept a record of all the pictures announced for one year. The number was so staggering when he printed it that Metro decided not to give out any more such announcements, but just titles of the properties they'd bought and expected to make. Other studios, however, are still at it.

'Janie' Is Young in Theme and Light in Mood

"JANIE."

THE CAST.

Lucille Colburn	Grace Carney
Rodney	Emory Richardson
John Van Brunt	Edmon Ryan
Janie Colburn	Edith Fellows
Bernadine Dodd	Patricia Hosley
Paula Rainey	Anne Sargent
Scooper Nolan	Gene Blakely
Thelma Lawrence	Dortha Duckworth
Dick Lawrence	Fredrik Vayder
Tina	Juanita Hall
Andy	Paul Henry
Frank	Jerry Harrison
Oscar	John Haverly
Hortense Bennington	Lee Truhill
"Dead Pan" Hackett	Whitney Kullman
Carl Loomis	Harry E. Lowell
Joe Jerome	Jules Weintraub
Mickey Malone	James Lee
Uncle Poodgie	Kirk Lucas

BY CLAUDIA CASSIDY.

"Janie," an amiable lightweight attractively staged and pleasantly played, opened the Civic theater's new playgoing career last night in a barrage of floral tributes, with a better than average pit orchestra, and lighting so unorthodox you actually could read your program without squinting. But if you want to be precise about things, that "original New York cast" business boils down to just one player, funny little Clare Foley, who must have been every day of seven when the comedy opened in New York a year ago.

It's still running there, of course, which is one reason why the Civic's stage setting is so crisply fresh, tho John Root is solely responsible for its unexpected charm of color that pits lime green against deep brown satin and touches off the whole with some unexpected stripes. It's a nice house the instant the curtain goes up, and you expect nice people to live there. Myself, I found them far more amusing than the roaring inhabitants of "Junior Miss," inferior Chicago version, and a bit anemic alongside the constant comedy of "Kiss and Tell." But it's in the same general class of exaggerated adolescents in conflict with appalled adults, complicated by a nearby army camp, and kibitzed by a small sister who is getting rich on the romantic payoff.

"Janie's" special angle, or perhaps curve is the word, is Janie herself, the belle of Hortonville High school, who moves inadvertently into army and navy circles when she finds herself giving a party for the son of her mother's best friend, who happens to be a private, romantically first class. This is not only beyond the teen age range of Janie and her girl friends, but an affront to Scooper Nolan, the boy next door, a challenge to snoopy small sister, and a red flag to Janie's father, a newspaper publisher who has front page views on the suitable entertainment of soldiers. The whole thing comes to a boil when the invitation acorn turns into a grove of party oaks.

Were there no more than the writing to "Janie," it would be fairly dull going. But Antoinette Perry has staged it with a light hand, and Brock Pemberton has captured some actors who can be watched without pain. As Janie, Edith Fellows is pretty, auburn haired, and something like a 1943 girl whose picture belongs, not in a pinup, but in a locket. Lawrence Fletcher and Grace Carney play believable parents, while Dortha Duckworth is amusing as a mamma who follows her boy not only to Yale, but to camp. There are deadpan boys and giggling girls, and several romances, and there is always that stanch upholder of the New York cast tag, small Clare Foley of the pigtails, the authentic little girl touch, and the instinctive sense of timing a line to make it sting.

'The White Swan' Feature of Lively Ballet Program

The Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo packed the Civic Opera house yesterday afternoon and turned away many a would-be customer who arrived too late to buy a ticket. Those who got in saw a lively bill, featuring "The Snow Maiden"; another captivating performance of "Rodeo," which won an ovation for Dorothy Etheridge and Frederic Franklin; the classic pas de deux from the third act of "Swan Lake," revived for and flawlessly danced by Igor Youskevitch, and a repetition of "The Red Poppy."

Nijinska's ballet of the melting maiden of Russian legend has held its own in the repertory, with the aid of Glazounoff's opulent score and the beautiful décor of Boris Aronson, which captures both the bleak and the exuberant with a reticent palette. A more tender telling of the sacrificial rites of spring than the fabled Nijinsky setting of Stravinsky's "Sacre du Printemps," "Snow Maiden" has won an audience as well as devoted performances from stars and ensemble.

Maria Tallchief was new and ornamental as spring of the flowing arabesques, and Nathalie Krassovska seemed to have no specific gravity worth mentioning as she danced the title role opposite the brilliant Youskevitch. Here he was able to realize his desire to share honors equally with his decorative partner, a trick not even he could turn in Tschaikowsky pas de deux. For Youskevitch is probably the finest of the male classical dancers today, and Krassovska, imperiously radiant as the black swan, was technically weak.

Illinois Tech Moves Up Commencement for 74

The Illinois Institute of Technology awarded degrees yesterday to 67 men and 7 women who had asked that the commencement, held in the Student Union building, 3300 Federal street, be moved up from Oct. 27 so that they could start on new jobs today. All except a few of the men are engineers and have been deferred from the draft to enter essential work. John I. Yellott, director of the Institute of Gas Technology, commencement speaker, told the graduates their first job is the winning of the war, and their second job, "of greater complexity," he said, is to evolve a plan to eliminate war and to maintain a stable economic existence.

INSTALMENT XXV.

LADY HYACINTH QUESTIONED.

The police edged awkwardly into the room.

"Good afternoon, your ladyship. I am addressing Lady Hyacinth Gloam? It's just a small matter. I'd best make sure of my facts. Is it correct that you are the owner of certain household and personal effects recently deposited in a domicile—I've written it down—designated as Foxgloves cottage, county of Dorset?"

"What of it?" The pale eyes stabbed.

The Maidenhead officer spoke his piece. His penultimate question remained so long unanswered that he began to think the patient was either stone deaf or shell-shocked—possibly both.

"I——I beg pardon, your ladyship. You haven't a partial inventory of the more valuable articles, anything in short which might assist the local authorities in ascertaining if——"

"I said 'No,' didn't I? If necessary, I'll repeat it. I know what's there. If nothing's been stolen, why all this fuss?"

"Not known for certain, your ladyship. That, if you'll pardon me, seems the difficulty. Lacking precise information. . . . We'll put it this way: Can your ladyship recall any exposed object, having intrinsic value? Calculated, if you take my meaning, to catch a thief's eye?"

"Everything's crated up. Intrinsically valuable? That is sheer bosh. There's nothing whatever amongst my belongings to warrant such a ridiculous term. Stop, tho! Who says there's been an attempt to break into the house?"

"Why, your ladyship, the—the details don't seem very explicit. I infer that those in residence——"

"Those?"

A ringed hand closed on a writing block. The inspector, as he later reported, just made the door.

"Pity!" Cyril toyed with a fine sliver of glass he had extracted from a crack in the hall floor. "It was rather a good piece."

"Warre's now being questioned?" For a second Cyril wore a startled, almost badgered look. "Well, that can't come to much, can it?"

"What," Wren asked, "did Lady Hyacinth say?"

"Didn't Jo tell you? We never got thru on the phone."

"O, bad luck!" Wren sympathized. "I suppose that pub phone's the one and only?"

"I daresay there are others," he said. "It's too late now to cushion any official shock. O, so you're back, are you?"

Sam goggled at the broken mirror.

"O, I see! I was afraid of this, you know. Did one of you——"

Wren said briefly that Miss Fripp was the casualty. At all cost she was determined to get Sam into the living room and behind a firmly shut door. Simultaneously the interview ended, the trio trooped in, and for a moment all Wren saw was Ronald's inscrutable grin.

Rousing, she captured the inspector's reply to Cyril:

"Now, now, Mr. Brockett, I quite appreciate your not liking to have an injured lady upset but I do assure you, death and violence are just the last things we want to broadcast—in connection with this cottage, that's to say. In fact, I was going to caution all of you to keep this new discovery strictly between ourselves. Attempted housebreaking is all the Maidenhead police have been instructed to report, coupled with a request for some clear statement of house contents that will enable us to check up on what's here and what isn't."

"Quite," Cyril said crisply.

Joanna stopped rubbing her foot.

"Well," the inspector said absently, "not just what we expected . . ."

"What," Cyril asked hoarsely, "does my cousin say?"

"Say? Well, to begin with she's made no inventory. Everything apart from actual furniture was boxed and nailed up; and the properties here lodged include no article of conspicuous value. That's all, you can read it for yourself."

Scanning the telegram Cyril said, "I see. Rather disposes of your motive, eh, inspector?"

The sergeant grumbled darkly. "I can show you chaps that'd pinch that silver teapot as soon as winking!"

As the two detectives trudged out, Cyril touched the upturned scrub of his mustache with a confident air. It vanished when, with a sniff, Joanna observed that she could have predicted what Hidy would say.

"You could?" Cyril accused icily.

"Sam," Ronald railed, "was this thief notion yours?"

"Mine, Mr. Ronald? I——I wouldn't go so far as to say that. I'll admit when I heard the inspector talking about the Bexminster victim being one of the very chaps that brought the furniture down and how his injuries seemed so remarkably similar to our victim's——"

"Quite so," Cyril cut in with cold dislike. "But assuming the same individual butchered both these victims, I fail utterly to perceive why projected burglary need be dragged into it. Here we have a great hulking brute on the spot in Bexminster Monday night and equally on the spot in this hamlet on Tuesday. He drinks, he's known to go into vile rages, he's made open threats against a constable. What more can we ask?"

"Y-yes," Sam wavered, unbeaten. "But inside these premises, Mr. B.! My argument is, What brought Podder indoors in the first place unless some one was already here?"

Wren went into the kitchen, hoping Ronald would follow. He did, only Sam tagged at his heels. Crossly filling the teapot she heard Joanna drawl,

"Stupid nonsense! Why were you scared blue over what Hidy would say?"

The gasp was Cyril's. "My poor Joanna! Are you mad?" A pause. Cyril mused, in tones of discovery, "It is nonsense, as you observe. After all"—coolly—"what can Hyacinth say—or do?"

Liver and veal ring: Simmer ¾ pound beef [or pork] liver for 5 minutes. Drain and grind with 4 slices bacon. Add ¾ pound ground veal, 2 tablespoons melted fat, 1 beaten egg, ¼ cup catsup, 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ cup chopped onion, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1 cup water, and 1 cup dry oatmeal. Place in greased ring mold and bake at 375 degrees F. for 1 hour. Cool slightly, then turn onto a plate and fill center with fluffy mashed potatoes.

This is the season for duck dinners in homes lucky enough to house a successful hunter. A wild duck should be drawn soon after shooting, but it should be allowed to age in a cool place for at least 24 hours before cooking.

There's still a lot of controversy about the roasting of a wild duck. Some hunters insist that it is not worth eating unless served rare, but there are as many arguments for well cooked duck.

If you don't know the age of the bird, better not try to serve it rare. Cover the breast with bacon strips, or baste it with fat during roasting, and roast uncovered at 325 degrees, 20 to 30 minutes to the pound. Use the longer time for well done meat.

Wild rice is absent from our markets these days, because of the difficulties of harvesting it, so we'll have to use plain rice or fruit for our wild duck stuffing. A favorite filling for wild duck consists of a quartered apple, several onion slices, and perhaps a prune or some raisins. Sliced oranges also may be used for filling, with or without the onion.

Progressive dinners have been revived, in some localities. They are a fine solution to the problem of how to entertain without too many ration points. In most cases it is foolish to attempt more than three courses for a progressive evening. If the partying couples live close enough together so that they can walk from house to house, four courses may not be too many. But if street car or other more bothersome means of travel must be employed, four different homes are too many to be visited.

The first hosts could serve fruit cocktail, green salad or soup; at the next stop, a hot casserole dish, relishes, rolls [with a pooled supply of butter], and a vegetable might be set forth; last visit would take care of dessert and coffee. A great deal of fun at little expense may be enjoyed in this way.

Musicians' Club to Open Season with Tea Today

The Musicians' Club of Women will open its 69th season with a musical and tea at 2:30 p. m. today in Curtiss hall of the Fine Arts building. Artists appearing on the program include Theodora Troendle, pianist and composer; Ebba Sundstrom, violinist; Annette Thorn Anderson, soprano; Florence Gullans Smith, mezzo; Blythe Owen Cramlet and Aloha Lawver, pianists, and Ann Gordon and Margaret Smith, accompanists.

TODAY'S $5 PRIZE RECIPE

Sandwich Spread.
[About two quarts.]

- 2 quarts green tomatoes
- 6 to 8 green and red peppers
- 1 pint onions
- ½ cup salt
- 2 cups sugar
- 1 pint vinegar
- 1 6 ounce jar prepared mustard
- 1 quart mayonnaise salad dressing

Run tomatoes, peppers, and onions thru a meat chopper, using fine blade. Stir in salt and let stand overnight. Drain off liquid. Bring sugar and vinegar to a boil; add vegetables and boil half an hour or until thick. Pour in clean hot jars and seal for future use; for immediate use add mustard and mayonnaise and keep in covered jar in cool dry place. MRS. CARL SWENSON, 274 Walnut street, Batavia, Ill.

White Collar GIRL

BY RUTH MACKAY

Executive's Hymn.

Please say a kind word for the boss.
Admit he's not always so cross,
And really a pretty good guy on the whole—
Please say a kind word for the boss.

Please say a kind word for the boss,
Struggling with profit and loss,
Duplicate forms and a thousand instructions—
Please say a kind word for the boss.

For many a pert young steno should know
It's not so much fun to be running the show—
Please say a good word, then, for him!

THE V. P.

Managing Women.

An article by H. P. Ellis in Jobber Topics is headed "They Must Be Bossed Differently."

Mr. Ellis, who confesses being a reader of this column, has been interested in comments, from time to time, on the ideal supervisor. In his article he says some pertinent things on the problem of managing women.

"Girls can't be managed exactly the same as he-men workers," he writes. "Woman, by her very nature, cannot be bossed successfully the same as man. Speaking generally, she is of a more nervous, more emotional makeup, is less logical and self-reliant, is not so resourceful or as creative as man. . . . You can bawl out a male employe or shop hand who goes off the beam and he will shrug it off, walk away, and mutter something that it's best [everything considered] you do not hear. But bawl out a woman and you hurt her. Not permanently, for in time she will recover, but during that time she isn't giving you her best.

"No woman of the right type minds kindly correction or constructive criticism. She does mind—deeply—a severe calling down, especially before her fellow workers, and she resents ridicule most of all. . . . There are a few women supervisors who have wonderful personality, tact, understanding, and an approachability that equips them ideally for their jobs. But take it by and large, women prefer working for men.

"A woman employe should be told definitely what work she is expected to do. . . . One point that arises which might seem too obvious to mention is profanity in the place she works; she doesn't care for swearing and dirty stories. Another point, also obvious is: don't expect a woman to lift heavy loads. . . . It isn't enough to spare milady the rougher hazards of her new career; the employer should go further and provide the little courtesies and conveniences that will make her work day happier and—from a selfish viewpoint—more productive."

White Collar Quote.

Success.

The original quotation on success is: "Success is action; success is a journey, not a destination." The late Gen. Balbo made this statement in Chicago when he visited our Century of Progress exposition.

State Club Federation to Open Leadership Class

First district of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs will conduct the opening fall session of its school of leadership at 1 p. m. today at federation headquarters, 30 West Washington street. A round table focused on juvenile delinquency will be directed by Miss Laura Thornton, and department chairmen will take part. Mrs. David C. Slagle will preside.

New Maternity Dresses Have Color, Style

BY REA SEEGER.

If you are spending your extra hours practicing cradle songs awaiting the important day, you're also interested in becoming new dresses for your lady-in-waiting days. This season, the designers have really worked with magic fingers, for you'll find some of the best looking day-time dresses ever unpacked, dresses that have all the fine detail, flattering color accents and the usual chic of any new fall and winter model.

There are, too, for your special consideration, high colored dresses to be used as color relief from all the navy blues and blacks. A gay coral pink smooth textured material resembling wool is deftly accented with visible stitch-in dark color, and this same smart young model comes in a lovely powder blue color with the same dark stitching. Beige and the beige tints, soft and honey colored, make ideal dresses for wear with brown fur and brown fur trimmed coats. Many are the shirtwaist type but there are dressmaker models with clever soft bow trim.

The classics in black are magic slenderizers, and since the navy blues are practically nonexistent, the blacks are rating the same shopping popularity for dress parade occasions as the navy blues ordinarily do. These black models are very smart. One which is young looking has a dainty vestee of ice blue embroidery matched with cuffs and little fake hip pockets [it also comes with frills of pink]. Another has a long vertical panel of sapphire blue crepe to resemble a redingote costume and there are plenty of all black dresses with the necessary trick extra fullness that have all the details of bows, embroidery and ribbon trim, details that are usually featured ordinarily on smart daytime models.

On the Calendar.

Henri-Etienne Hoppenot, delegate to the United States for the French National Committee of Liberation, in Washington, D. C., has sent a personal representative to a meeting at the Casino tonight sponsored by the French Relief fund and Lovers of France to stimulate interest in France, which will benefit from the National Community and War Fund drive now in progress. The representative is Henri Lafont de Lagenest of the French diplomatic service, whose last post was as first secretary of the French legation at Ottawa.

Elmer T. Stevens, head of the war fund drive, will speak briefly. The principal speaker will be Capt. Pierre Goube, a French priest and chaplain, who escaped after spending two years in a German concentration camp. Some of those entertaining at dinner tonight are the Donald F. McPhersons, Mrs. Joseph G. Coleman, Mrs. Emmons Blaine, the Leon Steeles, and the Orville J. Taylors. M. and Mme. de Lagenest and Capt. Goube are staying with Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Cummings, who also are giving a dinner tonight.

Miss Rowena Meyer, an American woman who was teaching English in the State Pedagogical Institute of Foreign Languages in Moscow during the German advance on that city in 1942, will address a meeting of the Russian War Relief society at 8 p. m. Wednesday in the grand ballroom of the Midland hotel. Mrs. Laird Bell is chairman of the women's division of the society and head of its speakers' bureau.

The Lake Shore club will be crowded this afternoon for the annual benefit bridge tea of the Women's Faculty club of Northwestern university, which is being held there at 2 p. m. Mrs. Chester J. Farmer, president of the club, is general chairman of the party. Toilet soaps, linen towels, glassware, and colognes are included among the door prizes.

Who's bringing up your children? Your husband's family? Your family? Do you listen to every one's advice, look for the faults they point out, resort to their systems of discipline, or perhaps over-indulgence?

Don't let your neighbors bring up your children. By that I mean, as you have probably guessed, don't allow yourself to be guided or influenced by everything others say to you in regard to managing your family.

I am not putting forth this warning because I think you are spineless and stupid, but because so many mothers who are anxious about their children's behavior are not too sure of themselves, and let themselves be blown here and there by opinions positively expressed. Or they will punish or scold a child, or adopt some line of management, for the sake of peace. "Anything to keep Aunt Ellen from talking." This is really letting others bring up your children, and it isn't good for you or the children, either.

Bring your children up yourself. To do this you must think things out for yourself. You must have some compass to steer by. You must do some thinking and gain some sense of conviction about the management of your children, and then have enough character and independence to do what you believe is best.

Besides, children are individuals. What your mother-in-law may have been able to do successfully with your husband when he was small, may be entirely the wrong tactics for you with your little boy. No one really knows your child as intimately as you do. It is for you to decide how he has to be managed. If you are not sure, then study your child and try to figure things out.

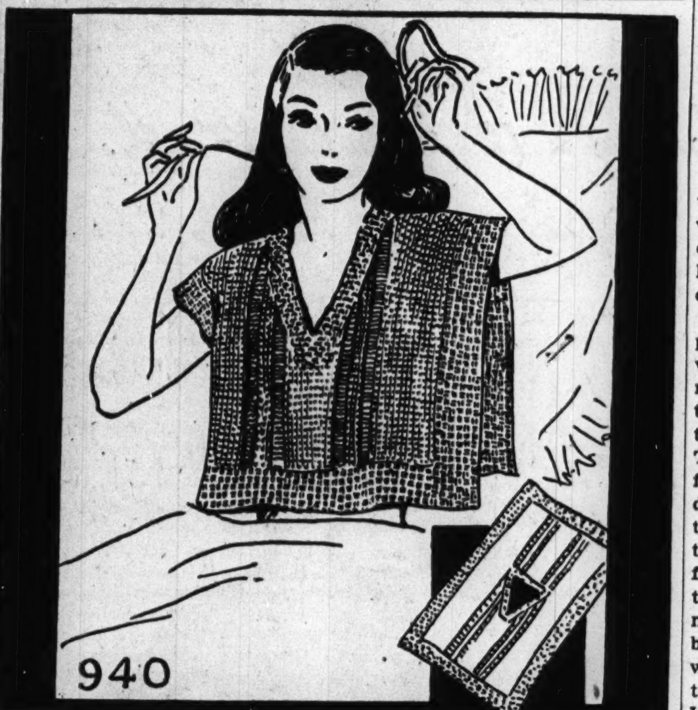
Unusual Bed Jacket



A new bed jacket for junior and adult convalescents is an adaptation of the South American poncho. It is knitted of soft sweater wool and requires little time to create, since only the stockinette and moss stitches are used.

For instructions in knitting the poncho bed jacket, No. 940, send 10 cents in stamps or coin, plus 2 cents to cover mailing cost, to the Needlework Bureau, Chicago Tribune, 220 Fifth avenue, New York City.

According to Culbertson

[Copyright: 1943: By Ely Culbertson.]

The credit due a declarer for playing a hand beautifully is in no way reduced by the fact that his opponents could have offered stiffer defense. The very essence of bridge is to outmaneuver the enemy, and to make it not only easy but persuasive for him to make a mistake. For example:

West, dealer.

NORTH
♥K
♦K 9 8 4 3 2
♣A J 9 7 3

WEST
♠3 2
♥A J 10 8 6 5 3
♦A 7
♣6 5

EAST
♠J 10 8 5
♥9 7 4
♦Q 10 5

SOUTH
♠A K Q 9 6 4
♥Q 2
♦J 6
♣K 4 2

The bidding:

West	North	East	South
1 heart	2 diamonds	Pass	4 spades
Pass	Pass	Pass

West opened the heart ace and, on sight of dummy, quickly shifted to the six of clubs. So far, this was shrewd defense, because now declarer could not establish the diamond suit and later reach it for discards. West, upon winning the first diamond lead with the ace, would return another club, and there would go dummy's vital entry.

South considered putting in the club jack on West's lead, but he was morally certain that West would not have led a club if he had held the queen. Hence, declarer ducked in dummy and won with the king.

At this point, most players would irrevocably ruin their chances by drawing trumps, but this particular South made no such error. Upon winning the second trick with the club king, he led the low diamond toward dummy. West injudiciously put up the ace and, hewing to his plan, returned a club. Declarer, again declining the finesse, won with the ace, then entered his hand with a trump and cashed the ace, king, and queen [West had played the ten-spot to prevent any miraculous finesse]. Two diamonds were discarded from dummy on these plays, and another diamond when declarer next threw East on lead with his high trump. Obviously enough at this point East could have laid down the club queen for the setting trick—but he didn't know that he could! From his point of view it appeared that West, not South, might have the remaining club and that if East returned the club queen, declarer would ruff.

I am not saying that this was sound analysis on East's part; I am merely reporting the facts. East decided to return a heart. Declarer won with the queen and cashed his remaining trumps, discarding clubs from dummy. On the last trump, East was "fixed." Actually, he let go the club queen and thereupon declarer could cash the club four. It would have been equally satisfactory if East had kept the club and reduced to one diamond, because then declarer would have collected two diamond tricks from dummy.

Sally Asks Aid for Family Hit by Fire in Home

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

A social service agency has asked our assistance for the X. family. About two months ago, all of their possessions were destroyed in a fire. Mr. X. is regularly employed, and ordinarily was able to maintain his family, but since the loss of their home, it has been impossible for him to replace all of the necessities.

There are three small children in the family, and another is expected. The mother is not well, and the fire and consequent loss have aggravated her condition. Their most imperative needs include a crib, a chest of drawers, cooking utensils, and dishes, as well as curtains and linens. Since all of their clothing was destroyed, apparel for a boy 6, girl 4, and a boy 1½ years old, would be welcome.

The agency will arrange transportation, but offers from the near north side could be most economically and conveniently handled.

A reader has asked help for an elderly man who is in poor health and has no relatives to assist him. The building in which he formerly lived has been sold, and he has now moved to a new address, where he occupies a room which contains only a bed, a straight chair, and a chest of drawers. If readers could contribute a comfortable chair, a bedside table, and a floor lamp, he would be most grateful. He cannot use a very low chair, having suffered a paralytic stroke several years ago.

Don Cossacks Trumpet Forth Faith in Russia

BY ALBERT GOLDBERG.

That breath of ancient Russia, the Don Cossack chorus, now tinged with the songs of the new order, came to the Civic Opera house again last night to delight a huge audience.

There seemed to be a new impulse in the singing of these stalwart veterans, an almost savage note of indomitable heroism, as if they were trumpeting to the world that there will always be a Russia. The concert opened with a profoundly touching threnody, a traditional funeral service dedicated to the Russian war dead. From there, thru the exultant expression of faith of the Russian liturgy, it led to songs of the carnival, a stirring march song by Shvedoff, the symbolic "Song of an Apple," and, by way of some lusty Cossack dancing, to Shostakovich's "Hymn of the United Nations," a campaign song and the New Russian "From Border to Border." In all, the Don Cossacks, under their fiery, strutting little leader, Serge Jaroff, were still that remarkable musical instrument of impalpable pianissimi and thunderous fortissimi, something to stir the blood and fill the ear.

Vivian Abell, whose regular professional routine is that of an organist and choir director, expanded her activities by giving a song recital at Kimball hall yesterday afternoon. Perhaps in reaction from the cloistered solemnities of the organ loft, Miss Abell chose a program whose accent was largely on the gay and vivacious. This would have been well enough had it not involved considerable coloratura singing, a taxing form of vocalization for which Miss Abell is at present ill prepared. An extremely faulty and insecure system of production emphasizes other technical deficiencies and gives to her voice a reedy, adolescent quality sadly inimical to the best interests of musical interpretation. The most genuine musical satisfaction of the afternoon was provided by the canny accompaniments of Robert Macdonald.

BY EDWARD PRELL.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 17.—The world champion Washington Redskins flung their challenge to the western half of the National Football league this afternoon by shocking the Green Bay Packers and their Wisconsin adherents with a 33 to 7 plastering. The ease with which the eastern eleven scored almost at will against the title ambitious Packers stunned the 25,000 who packed State Fair park in suburban West Allis.

The Redskins, who had lost to these same Packers in an exhibition last month after being walloped by the College All-Stars, dissipated any opinion they are cheese champions this chilly afternoon. They looked awesome in an 80 yard power drive the first time they got the ball, with Handy Andy Farkas slamming thru and around a yielding Green Bay line.

Baugh Takes Over.

Then with a protective 6 point lead, Sammy Baugh took command. The four resultant touchdowns came on pitches fired by the lank Texan. They swept to a second touchdown in the first quarter, added one each in the next three, and satisfied for the day, weren't too perturbed when Don Hutson caught his only pass of the game as he skipped into the end zone.

Seldom in recent years have the Packers been so badly outclassed. Tony Canadeo, successor to Cecil Isbell, could get neither the passing nor running game functioning. It may have been they never recovered from that first shock of retreating 80 yards as the game opened.

Baugh completed 14 of 29 pitches for 132 yards and the champions ground out 139 yards rushing. They had 16 first downs to Green Bay's 8.

Only a victory over the Bears in Chicago on Nov. 7 can keep the Packers in the championship race. The Bears play the Redskins next month in Washington.

Drive to Touchdown.

The Redskins averaged 8 yards on 10 plays to smash on the ground from their 20 after Chet Adams' kick-off opening the game had gone into the end zone. Farkas carried the ball eight times in the devastating drive and Wilbur Moore lugged it on the other occasions. One of Moore's runs was a twisting, crazy one for 47 yards, and during the spectacular trip he brushed off at least three Packers. On his other try he made 2, but it was Farkas who kept up the steady pounding at the yielding Green Bay line. The only good thing about it, from the Packers' angle, was that Joe Aguirre failed to notch the extra point.

After the resultant kick-off, the Packers couldn't get moving and Farkas returned Lou Brock's kick 30 yards to Green Bay's 46 and the champions against set sail for their opponents' goal. Farkas got 11 yards on three successive smashes

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 17 [Special].—The injury-riddled Chicago Cardinals dropped a 7 to 0 decision to the Detroit Lions today before 15,072 on a third period screen pass from Frankie Sinkwich to Harry Hopp. Augie Lio place kicked the extra point on his second try, the Cards obligingly having been offside when he missed the first.

Sinkwich, who had been pre-occupied in picking himself up and counting his teeth after being greeted roughly upon his entrance in the second quarter, accomplished his portion of the scoring maneuver with comparative ease. The Lions had taken over on their 33 after Cal Purdin's punt, which the Card back barely got off.

Three linemen rushed Sinkwich, intent on mayhem. Sinkwich flipped over their heads to Hopp, who was three yards behind the line of scrimmage, and protected by a cordon of four linemen. Hopp veered to the right behind his screen, and Ben Hightower blocked out Purdin, last Card pursuer.

Lions Potent in Air.

The Cards' line all but decimated the Lions' touted back field, the winners winding up behind the eight ball with a minus total of 40 yards running the ball. However, the Lions were potent thru the air, picking up 211 yards by this means.

Purdue Sets the Pattern for Big Nine Football Planning

Big 9 Standings

	W.	L.	T.	Pct.	Pts.	OP.
Purdue	2	0	0	1.000	70	28
Michigan	1	0	0	1.000	21	7
Illinois	1	1	0	.500	46	47
Northwestern	1	1	0	.500	21	27
Wisconsin	1	1	0	.500	14	30
Indiana	0	1	1	.000	13	21
Iowa	0	1	1	.000	12	14
Ohio State	0	1	0	.000	7	30

The pattern of the Western conference football race has become evident by virtue of Purdue's crushing victory over Ohio State. The Boilermakers apparently are headed for at least a share of the 1943 title and the question of co-ownership probably to be determined this week when Minnesota meets Michigan in Ann Arbor.

If Minnesota can trounce the Wolverines, the title game as far as Purdue is concerned then will be played at Minnesota, Nov. 6. Normally this long range guessing would not be in order since Purdue still has four games to play. It does not seem likely, however, that Iowa or Wisconsin can stand off Purdue's power. Minnesota must declare itself this week at Michigan and until the returns of that contest are in the Gophers will be rated as the greatest threat to the Boilermakers.

Power Does It.

The key to Purdue's success, as Ohio State found out in the second half Saturday, is power. Tony Butkovich is a hard driving full back who, when tackled, always adds a couple of yards by his final lunge. Purdue had the ball for 69 rushing plays against the Buckeyes and Tony carried 37 times. While Keith Parker and Boris Dimancheff, Purdue half backs, lent valuable assistance to the second half attack, the assault always revolved around Butkovich.

The sturdy full back probably has the finest line in the conference, from tackle to tackle, to clear the way for him. Mike Kasap and John Genis are excellent tackles while Dick Barwegan and Alex Agase unquestionably are the best pair of guards in the Big Nine. The all conquering charge of these men was shown by a quarter back sneak Saturday by Sam Vacanti, who actually gained 9 yards on the play. Earlier against Great Lakes the same wedge charge had gained 8 yards.

Strategy Is Faulty.

Despite this tremendous superiority, the Purdue attack was checkmated for 30 minutes by Ohio State's defenders who were aided by Vacanti's inept selection of plays. Purdue made 11 of its 21 first downs in the first half and gained 143 yards but did not score. The Boilermakers were in scoring position four times and lost the ball on downs. It is almost unbelievable but in the 16 plays—the last four for each of the four threats—Butkovich never carried the ball.

Twice Vacanti handicapped Purdue 10 yards or more by first down sweeps after a fake plunge into the line and subsequent passes could not make up the losses. These runs, by Lew Rose and by Vacanti, were aimed around a six man line backed by three men, which was just the right kind of a defense to stop the plays.

Wildcats Are Improving.

It also is noteworthy that Purdue attempted 18 of its 21 forward passes in the unproductive first half. After the intermission Vacanti used his strongest weapon, line smashes over Ohio State's guards and tackles. In the second half Butkovich carried 22 times and scored three touchdowns. The other two touchdowns were made by Dimancheff.

With Michigan idle last Saturday, interest in midwestern football centered on Northwestern's defeat of Great Lakes as well as the Purdue-Ohio State conference game. The Wildcats have developed steadily in the two weeks since their defeat by Michigan and it is unfortunate for Northwestern that the Michigan game came that early on its schedule.

Notre Dame won from Wisconsin as expected and moves steadily toward its goal of a national championship. The Irish regulars only played 18 minutes against the Badgers and did not yield a first down to their opponents in that time.

MOUNT CARMEL TIES LEO, 6 TO 6

Fighting back in the final quarter, Mount Carmel went into the air to score a touchdown with only three minutes to play and tied the Leo Lions, 6 to 6, yesterday before a capacity crowd of 11,500 in Yates stadium.

Leo, undefeated in 27 consecutive games, was the first to score. The touchdown was set up on a poor kick by Bob Carroll. Kicking into the wind from his 22, the punt sailed out of bounds on the Mount Carmel 31. Two line plays netted no gain and Bob Barry dropped back and fired a pass to Capt. Bob Walsh on the Caravan 15. Walsh was downed on the 13.

Dauphinee Goes Over.

Mount Carmel's touchdown drive started on it's 37 where George Tasker was downed after returning Dauphinee's kick 10 yards. After a pass failed, Tasker made seven on a Statue of Liberty play. Carroll slipped thru left tackle for 20 yards and a first down on the Leo 35.

Tracey Ties Game.

Carroll then faded back and whipped a pass to Bill Tracey who took it on the Leo 25 and scampered down the sidelines for a touchdown. Capt. George Benigni's kick for the extra point was blocked after a bad pass from Center Jim Lewandowski.

RUSSIAN successes on the battle front already are being reflected on America's race tracks. . . . Among the new crop of 2 year olds are Velikie Lukie and Smolensko. . . . The gloomy ones who predicted early last spring [1] that the major leagues would not open the season; and [2] that they would fold before July 4 could hardly wait for the end of the most successful world series in the history of baseball to allow that there is no possible chance of competition in 1944 because of the drafting of fathers. . . . Clubowners and league officials, who refuse to believe what they read, are considering returning to Florida and California for training in February. . . . Texas Christian's Horned Frogs have a record of 64 football games won, 35 lost, and 11 tied for a percentage of .631 in 20 years of Southwest conference competition. . . . Don Veller, former star half back at Indiana university, has been promoted to captain and is special service officer at the Fort McClellan [Alabama] infantry replacement training center. . . . Chicago suburbs contributed L. H. Lippincott of Winnetka and J. B. Lee [Lake Forest] to the 1943 Brown university varsity. . . . Lippincott is a center, Lee a back. . . . The Marquette-Lawrence game reminded oldtimers that the Hilltoppers defeated the Vikings, 1 to 0, in 1918. . . . Marquette was trailing, 7 to 12, when the visitors walked off the field in protest against a decision and forfeited the contest. . . . The Notre Dame-Great Lakes football game, scheduled for Comiskey park Thanksgiving day, will be shifted either to Notre Dame or Great Lakes to conform with a Navy directive which requires navy teams to appear only on the home field of either contestant. . . .

If you're planning to name a race horse for some famous predecessor, the Jockey club will tell you it cannot be done unless the owner of the original nag has been dead for 16 years. . . . One game of every seven played by the Reds this season was a shutout. The world series was an enjoyable interlude for Umpires John Conlan of the National league and George Pipgras of the American. . . . As alternates, they received full compensation for watching the five games from ringside seats, to say nothing of the pleasure they had in riding the trains [with berths and everything] from New York to St. Louis. . . . Boston baseball writers never have forgiven Casey Stengel for cutting loose Ralph Hodgin, now of the White Sox. . . . Said one critic, "Well, Ralph missed the American league batting championship by a few points. Just as Casey said, the man just didn't hit enough." . . .

And No Shade!

Wouldn't we be surprised to wake up tomorrow morning and find we had one of those good old Chicago blizzards during the night and the street cars, L, and buses were snowed to a standstill? Boy, it would be swell, too. The temperature now is 100 degrees in the shade.

BY WILFRID SMITH.

The Chicago Bears still are the old masters of the T formation of football attack. For only one period of play yesterday in Wrigley field the Bears' imitators, the combined Philadelphia-Pittsburgh squad of the National league, held their own with a 7 to 7 score. Then the burly Bears loosed a four touchdown deluge in the second quarter and calmly continued to wallop the easterners by the final count of 48 to 21.

The Bears entertained a crowd of 21,744 by passing and running for a 48 to 7 lead before a group of substitutes yielded the consolation scores. It was the Bears' third victory of the year and the first defeat for the Phil-Pitt Eagles, and since the Washington Redskins were returned victors yesterday over Green Bay, the Bears now are undisputed leaders of the western division of the league despite an opening game tie with the Packers in Green Bay.

Visitors Score First.

The easterners, who had lost a practice game earlier to the Bears, 20 to 7, started yesterday's contest as if they would smack down the boys who had made the football world T-conscious. Phil-Pitt scored on a 60 yard pass on the second play of the game. But the Bears immediately retaliated with Dante Magnani taking the subsequent kickoff 96 yards to tie the score.

The first ground assault of the Bears was frustrated, but they were in position by the end of the period and scored on the opening play of the second quarter. This was a 16 yard throw by Sid Luckman to George Wilson and the throw eventually was matched by two more to give the veteran director of the Bears' attack three touchdown passes for the day and a total of nine in four league games.

Luckman set some kind of a record in the second quarter when he completed six consecutive passes, missed on one, and followed with a 10 yard completion to Doug McEnulty for a touchdown. Luckman's third touchdown pass came in the last quarter and was a 17 yard throw to Hampton Pool.

Snyder Kicks Six Points.

Bob Snyder, Luckman's relief man, place kicked the points after the first six Bear scores, but yielded to Ray McLean after the last score. McLean's drop kick was wide.

In all, Luckman had 11 completions in 17 attempts and the Bears' total record, with Snyder's performance included, was 13 completions in 25 attempts.

Zimmerman's scoring pass on the second play from scrimmage did not catch the Bears unprepared. It was a high floater which barely cleared Harry Clark's head and was caught by Steele on the Bears' 20. When Clark turned to grab the receiver, he fell and Steele then had no opposition as he trotted to the goal.

Magnani Ties It Up.

Magnani's tying sprint on the next kickoff brought the thousands to their feet as he burst thru a wave of green jersied players at midfield and then outran Steele to the goal. He plotted a straight course down the east side line and Steele missed on a desperate lunge on his own 12.

We have written of the Luckman to Wilson scoring pass which sent the Bears ahead, 14 to 7. The Chicagoans immediately began a drive for a third score and went 76 yards in six plays.

Clark plunged for 5 yards and then Luckman passed to Wilson and to Clark for 22 and 19 yards, respectively. Clark hit center for 14 yards and Bill Osmanski added 3 at guard. Magnani then hit the same

VIKINGS SOCCER TEAM DEFEATS SWEDES, 3 TO 1

Schwabens Win, 2 to 0, Over Slovaks.

BY OFFSIDE.

Taking advantage of defensive shortcomings on the part of their opponents, the Vikings soccer team defeated the Swedes, 3 to 1, yesterday in the Winnemac park stadium. The Schwabens' 2 to 0 triumph over the Slovaks leaves only the Schwabens and Vikings undefeated in Major division competition.

The Vikings scored in the first 90 seconds of play when Jimmy McDermott, taking advantage of Henry Handler's action in leaving his goal unprotected, scored from 15 yards out. McDermott put his team further ahead 14 minutes later when the ball was tipped over the goal line during a scrimmage.

The Vikings made their third score on another defensive lapse. Stanley Woodward hesitated just long enough to permit Nels Bostrom to beat Handler from 10 yards out. The Swedes started the second period on the attack and forced a corner in the first minute of play, Tommy Reilly beating Johanasen from five yards. Lineups:

Buddy Scott, Merritt Will Meet Tonight

Buddy Scott, who has not boxed in Chicago since beating Al Globe four years ago, will make his reappearance as heavyweight champion of Texas in a 10 round bout against Dan Merritt of Cleveland in Marigold Gardens, Broadway and Grace street, tonight.

Since last appearing in this city, Buddy has met with better than average success. He defeated Tony Musto in Dallas, knocked out Tommy Gomez in Tampa, and beat Claudio Villar in Havana. He also scored an 11th round technical knockout over Johnny Denson of Indianapolis on Sept. 30.

Scott is a shifty boxer and punches with authority when the opportunity presents itself. Against Merritt he will have considerable opportunity to give a demonstration of his speed afoot because Dan is a powerful hitter. Merritt, who won a Chicagoland Golden Gloves title in 1938, gave a convincing exhibition of his punching ability when he knocked out Lem Franklin in the first round in Wrigley field two months ago after suffering two knockdowns himself.

Samson Powell, 1943 Golden Gloves and National A. A. U. middle weight title holder, will make his first Chicago appearance as a money fighter when he opposes Art McWhorter, Gary light heavyweight, in a five round supporting match on the card. Forrest Gee, Milwaukee 160 pounder, and Jack Hill of Bloomington, Ill., will meet in a six round rubber contest, each having won previously. An additional six round event will bring together Otis McGraw, Detroit welter weight, and Charley Wells.

Have you ever thought at the end of the day,
When the sun goeth down in the west,
Of larks without songs, without wings, without play,

Does it hurt you to think when the day time is o'er
That you have neglected your part
In helping the little ones living next door
To bring back the song to their heart?

When you are in comfort and ease
Of urchins and orphans wandering astray,
The victims of vice and disease?
My friend, do you care, ere the day is complete,
That you have not acted your part
In speaking kind words to the lad on the street
To bring back the song to his heart? —W. J. Griffith.

Sportsman's Race Meeting Opens Today

BY HOWARD BARRY.

The Chicago racing season will enter its final stages today with the opening of the Sportsman's Park meeting. The coming three weeks, during one of which the track will be operated for charity, will wind up the season in this area.

Even tho the zippy weather of the last few days should continue, Sportsman's Park fans don't worry about it. They're either hardened to all climatic whims or else they seek shelter in the protected sections of the clubhouse where heaters keep everything toasty.

Get Close-up View.

Many Chicago fans enjoy Sportsman's Park more than they do the larger circuits, because they like to get a closeup view of the horses all the way around the track.

John L. Keeshin, William Johnston, and Charles Bidwill, operators of Sportsman's Park, have announced that the proceeds of the extra week will be distributed 75 per cent to the Community War Fund of Metropolitan Chicago, 12½ per cent to the Service Men's center, and 12½ per cent to the Illinois Veterans service. During the corresponding week last year Sportsman's Park raised $133,000 under the sponsorship of Chicago Tribune Charities. A similar meeting last spring realized $83,000.

$1,500 Allowance Event.

Racing Secretary Patrick C. Galliger has scheduled a $1,500 allowance event at a mile and a sixteenth as the feature of opening day. Minimum purses will be $1,000 with $2,500 handicaps heading the Saturday programs.

MONARCHS WIN 2D SWEEPSTAKES WITH 2,918 PINS

Repeating their efforts of two weeks ago, the Monarch Beers captured the second straight of the Chicago Sunday Sweepstakes last night at the Garden Recreation, 4074 North Milwaukee avenue, with a 2,918 total. Other teams finishing in the money: Chapin & Gore, 2,899; Meister Braus, 2,885; United States Beer, 2,813; Mineralites, 2,812; Washington Shirts, 2,794.

The Art J. Williams team had the high score out of the money with 1,002 and Rudy Boedecker of Chapin & Gore had the high individual series with 689 and a high single game of 245. Harry Ledene Jr. of the Monarchs had the highest individual game with 256 pins.

Films Feature Football Clubs' Meetings Today

Films of the Illinois-Pittsburgh and the Notre Dame-Michigan football games will feature programs at the two football luncheons in Chicago today.

Wailing Wall fans in the College Inn of the Hotel Morrison will see the pictures of last Saturday's game between Illinois and Pittsburgh and in addition will hear comments on the game by Doug Mills and Jimmy Hagan, directors of athletics at Illinois and Pittsburgh, respectively.

Quarter Back club fans in the Terrace room of the Morrison hotel will see pictures of the Notre Dame-Michigan game and will hear a football talk by Frank Leahy, director of athletics at Notre Dame.

DAY BY DAY ON THE FARM

The FARM by Ben Markland

Oct. 17, 1943.

SILO filling has been completed on the Wheaton farm, and the machine with which the job was done gave farm visitors a new appreciation of the term "mechanized agriculture."

The contrast between old style ensilage machinery and that used on the farm this year is as great as the contrast between a modern armored tank and a baby carriage. Even experienced farmers in the Wheaton area never had seen a field ensilage harvester until they watched the crew operating under John Meyers on a dozen farms in Du Page county this season.

Moves Faster Than Man.

Meyers' crew of four men, aided by one of the regular farm employes, filled a 60 foot silo in a day and a half early this week. The field ensilage harvester, powered by a tractor, moves thru a cornfield faster than a man can run thru the same field. A single row of corn is cut, sent thru the choppers in the harvester, and delivered in silage form up an elevator which dumps the thoroly chewed corn into a dump truck which moves alongside the harvester.

The speed of this crew can be estimated by the fact that each of the 3½ ton dump trucks can make 18 round trips in a 7½ hour day. In other words, the harvester cuts and processes about 24 tons of corn per hour.

Each trip made by a dump truck requires about 2 minutes to go from silo to field, 8 minutes to fill the truck in the field, 2 minutes back to the silo, and 9 minutes to unload the ensilage into the blower. Naturally these periods vary somewhat according to distance between field and silo and the quality of the corn.

Drivers Have Tough Job.

The two truck drivers have the back breaking jobs in the crew, since they must feed the ensilage into the blower trough from the dump trucks. If rugged workers are not available for these jobs next season Meyers plans to change the procedure by using manure spreaders instead of trucks. He believes that by building up the sides of the manure spreaders they could hold 2 to 2½ tons of ensilage. The advantage of the spreaders over trucks would be that the arduous feeding of the ensilage into the blower trough would be almost eliminated, since the spreaders' power take-offs could be utilized for this job.

THE GARDEN

THE common practice of burning autumn leaves produces one of the picturesque and aromatic symbols of autumn, but wise gardeners will save at least a portion of their rakings for use as compost and mulching material in next year's plot.

Many novice gardeners have been frightened out of the compost habit by highly technical instructions about chemicals and limestone applications which many gardeners think are necessary. A compost pile can be simple to make and highly beneficial to the garden by providing important humus. Composting is especially beneficial to plots which are too sandy or contain too much clay.

To make a compost pile, merely enclose one or two corners of the plot with chicken wire. Such enclosures can be four to eight feet in diameter, depending upon the size of the garden. Place in the pile such material as raked leaves, carrot tops, chopped bean and tomato vines, and even vegetable garbage from the table if no sanitary problem is involved. Pile the material in saucer form so that rainfall and snowfall will be absorbed rather than drained off. This fall, winter, and early spring use a spading fork to mix the compost and cause uniform decay of the material.

The compost then can be used as mulching material next season and spaded under the ground next fall or the following spring when it is thoroughly decayed, thus adding valuable humus to the soil.

Luckman's Passing Is Feature of Game.

The Bears' fourth scoring maneuver began on their own 36 yard line. Ray Nolting took care of the ground work and Luckman continued to pitch. With the ball on the eastern 3 yard line, Nolting went over for the score.

Bears Lead at Half, 35 to 7.

Tony Ippolito intercepted Zimmerman's pass late in the second period and was downed on the Phil-Pitt 12. On the third subsequent play Luckman passed to McEnulty for 10 yards and the touchdown, and the Bears had their half time lead of 35 to 7.

Clark's touchdown, which opened the Bears' scoring in the second half, was a gift. Charley Gauer fumbled on the Chicago 19 yard line and Clark picked up the bounding ball and ran 81 yards to the north goal. Snyder followed with his sixth consecutive placement for points and thus came within one of tying the league record which Riley Smith of Washington established in 1936 when the Redskins defeated New York, 49 to 14, for the league championship.

When next in possession the Bears got under way and reached the Phil-Pitt 9 yard line as the third period ended. Two penalties on the easterners, one for pushing a pass receiver and the other on Earle Neale, the Phil-Pitt coach, for coming on the field, assisted in the march. Luckman was thrown for a loss on the third down which opened the fourth quarter, but then passed from the 17 yard line to Pool for a touchdown.

Melange of Penalties.

The game became a melange of penalties in the last period and at one time the Bears drew a 15 yard reproof for holding and two consecutive 5 yard penalties for too much time in the huddle. Zimmerman ended the farce by intercepting Snyder's pass and returning 14 yards to midfield.

Zimmerman then threw on first down to Tony Bova for a total gain of 50 yards and the second Phil-Pitt touchdown.

Another interception, this time on the Bears' 47, set up the last eastern score. Zimmerman completed three passes to put the ball on the Bears' 10, whereupon the Chicago boys donated 5 yards for offside and yielded the score on Johnny Butler's third down plunge from the 1 yard line.

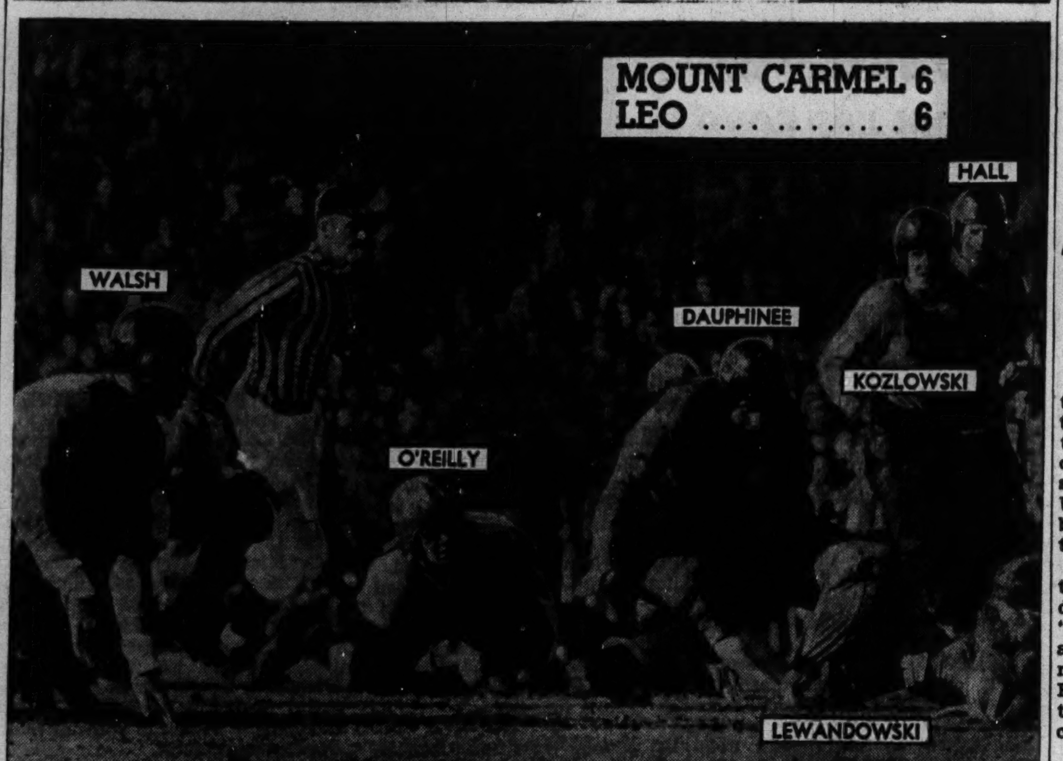
DAUPHINEE IS STOPPED



Neil Dauphinee, Leo High full back, who scored his team's second quarter touchdown in the 6 to 6 deadlock with Mount Carmel yesterday, wasn't quite as successful on this thrust thru tackle. He was tackled hard by Center Jim Lewandowski after gaining six yards. Mount Carmel tied the score in the final three minutes on a forward pass. [TRIBUNE Photos.]

Redskins Rout Packers, 33-7; Baugh Stars

and then bolted for 2 more. Baugh's first passing effort showed up, a 9 yarder to Moore. Then Farkas took the lead again. He hit for 3 and 8 to the 13. On a reverse he dropped a yard.

Baugh, fading back to pass, was trapped. He fought free of the tackler and quickly passed the ball. It was a high, wabbly pass into the end zone and Moore caught it as he went to his knees. This time Aguirre kicked goal, giving the Redskins a 13 to 0 lead after 11½ minutes.

Seymour Does Some Running.

The Redskins limited themselves to one touchdown in the second quarter, but continued to maul the Wisconsin team. Early in this period Baugh slammed a 59 yard quick kick which put the Packers back on their 16. After Lou Brock's 28 yard punt rolled dead on the Packers' 46 the champions started the parade, with another full back, Bob Seymour, aping Farkas' iron man running, and Baugh opening up with short passes. Moore got two of these, one for 8 and the other for 6, which put the champions 20 yards away. Seymour bolted thru the wilting Green Bay line for 12. Moore was held for no gain on a reverse, but on the next play he snatched Baugh's pass just as he backed over the end zone. Aguirre made it 20 to 0.

Canadeo brought the crowd up with a 43 yard kickoff return as the second half opened, but the Packers were 2 yards short of a first down when Jacunski dropped Canadeo's fourth down pass.

On the first play Farkas fumbled but recovered for a yard loss. Baugh's first pass missed, but Moore took the next one for 15 yards. Moore took a short one and fought down the field 15 yards to the 26. With the Packers expecting more of the same, Farkas slammed thru left tackle for 19. The Redskins had gained only 2 yards and it was fourth down when Baugh pitched to Farkas in the flat. He ran over for his second touchdown but the score remained at 26 to 0 when Aguirre missed the point kick.

Baugh Intercepts Pass.

Early in the fourth quarter Baugh leaped up and intercepted a pass by Lou Brock on the Packers' 22. He was slapped down on the 12, but got up and ran to the 8. The Redskins were set back to the 13 for too much time in the huddle. Baugh passed to Seymour, who wrestled his way to the 4. Then, seeing Aguirre all alone in the end zone, Baugh threw the ball to him for the fifth Redskin score. Aguirre's kick made it 33 to 0.

Green Bay took the ball on its 45 when the Washington kick-off was out of bounds. A screen pass, Canadeo to Andy Uram, netted 35 yards to the champions' 20. A 5 yard offside penalty came next, then Canadeo passed to Jacunski for 8, and to Hutson as he skipped over the goal line. Hutson kicked goal.

SHELLS FOR SALE: 4,000 HUNTERS ANSWER FAKE AD

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 17 (AP).—A prankster inserted a want ad in a Minneapolis newspaper today saying war worker Alfred T. Petersen had 50 boxes of shotgun shells for sale. As a result police were called to handle the estimated 4,000 disappointed hunters who filled streets and blocked street car traffic near the Petersen home.

CEILINGS A DRUG TO LULL PUBLIC, PACKER WARNS

Aim to Conceal Weakness of Rationing, He Says.

Price ceilings are a dope intended to keep the public unconscious of the weaknesses of government rationing, Victor Norton, vice president of the Cudahy Packing company, said yesterday on the Northwestern University Reviewing Stand program broadcast over W-G-N and the Mutual Broadcasting system.

"The ceilings are opiates to keep the patient unconscious while the disease runs it course," he said. "They have many weaknesses and are dubiously effective. With proper rationing, they would not be needed. But under the present rationing system we have to have some price ceilings."

Upset Natural Balance.

The only effective regulator of prices and safeguard against inflation, Norton said, is an economic balance of supply and demand. Government price ceilings tend to throw the natural economic balance off center by piling up a purchasing power out of proportion to the available goods.

Norton attacked government subsidies for an industry as a system for charging today's bills to future generations in the form of taxes. "And the people today have more money than they know what to do with," he said.

Howard Berolzheimer, member of the faculty of the Northwestern university school of commerce, said he is a member of the white collar, fixed income class of workers who are "being squeezed in a race between union wages, farm prices, and government pay rolls."

Blames Administration.

"I think the administration is responsible for this race," Berolzheimer said. "I can't see how the administration has done much to flag down the spiral. They have been able to control the index of the cost of living very well in Washington, but have not been able to control the cost of living."

The topic of the Reviewing Stand discussion was "Should Price Ceilings Be Relaxed?" Richard Gilbert, price adviser for the OPA, speaking from Washington, said he thought the government has done a good job.

ANGSTEN IS 1ST IN DINGHY RACE; THREE CAPSIZED

Tim Angsten, 17 year old junior member of the Chicago Yacht club, won the club's first point scoring race of the fall series yesterday in Belmont harbor. Skipper Angsten, with Robert O'Neill as crew, won two of the seven races and ended the day with a total of 35½ points. Sam Clarke, with Ed Schnabel Sr. as crew, was runner up with 30 points. Russell Moon, with Americus Nye as crew, placed a close third with 29 points.

Three of the eight D class sailing dinghies competing were capsized by the gusty wind in the harbor. The boats were manned by Jack Vilas Jr. and his wife, Gloria, Warren Hedden and his wife, Connie, and Ray Strout and Lou Shilladay.

A new 20 foot crash boat, piloted by Paul Pearl, a junior member of the club, rescued the three crews. Next week the dinghy fleet will race for the Harry Nye trophy.

FIRST OF RATION BOOKS NO. 4 TO BE ISSUED TODAY

Residents of some Chicago suburbs will register for and receive war ration book No. 4 today. Chicagoans will register beginning tomorrow in the alphabetical order of their surnames. Most suburbs will start registration tomorrow, only Bensenville, Wheeling, North Chicago and Gary, Ind., starting today. One person may obtain the new books for all members of his family, but must present a corresponding number of ration books No. 3 for identification before the No. 4 books will be issued. Residents of Chicago may call the board of election commissioners to learn at which school they are to register.

8 SMASH TRUCK THRU GATE, FLEE SCHOOL FOR BOYS

Head for Chicago, Desert Vehicle Near Glen Ellyn.

Eight 'teen age Negro toughs crashed out of the Illinois State Training School for Boys near St. Charles last night by driving a truck thru a heavily reinforced wire gate on the south side of the grounds.

Just outside the flattened gate, the fugitive driver turned deliberately to hit Joseph Miller, school poultryman, who was walking along the road and had signaled them to stop.

Miller sidestepped the careening truck. He said he presumed the fugitives intended to stop him from spreading an alarm which he did immediately by telephoning Richard Eddy, managing officer, in the administration building.

Slip Thru Police Net.

Barricades were set up by state and city policemen in the school area, but the young criminals slipped thru.

The truck was found abandoned an hour later on Route 64, about half a mile west of Glen Ellyn.

School authorities said the eight probably were headed for Chicago, where six of them have homes. Eddy said the eight were inmates of Buchanan cottage, in which older and more vicious Negro boys are held.

About 7 p. m., when the housemother, Mrs. Mary Wiley—who with her husband, Jerry, supervises the cottage—was stacking linens in a cabinet, one of the boys took her keys and unlocked the front door, returning the bunch to her desk unnoticed.

Make Break for Garage.

One by one the eight slipped out, ran to the school garage, broke open the door, started the truck, and fled.

The fugitives and their records: Leslie Wilson, 16, of 4116 Vincennes avenue, committed last January for robbery; Warren Shaw, 20, East St. Louis, committed for larceny; Frank Milton, 18, also of East St. Louis, auto theft; Edward House, 14, of 1524 Washburne avenue, a truant; Monroe Hunter, 16, of 4936 Prairie avenue, larceny; Sylvester Holloway, 17, of Joliet, an incorrigible; Andrew George, 19, of 5306 Michigan avenue, returned twice for parole violation, and David Cole, 16, of 6225 Wabash avenue.

TELL MACKINAC VIEWS! BROOKS URGES WILLKIE

Any person seeking to lead the Republican party should subscribe to the Mackinac conference resolution in international coöperation or make specific his views to the contrary, Sen. Wayland Brooks said yesterday.

Reached at his office, in Chicago, where he spent the week-end before returning to his duties in Washington, Sen. Brooks said he did not hear or read Wendell L. Willkie's speech in St. Louis and could not comment on it directly. But he added:

"Any one who is privileged to travel at government expense to the capitals of the world during this deadly war should not hesitate to make definite and specific his recommendations without evasion."

DRAFT OFFICIALS CHECK RECORDS OF 15 YEAR OLDS

National selective service officials are directing the listing of records of all boys 15 years and older thru principals of their schools, officials of the Illinois selective service system disclosed yesterday.

Records covering medical and social history of boys in grammar, parochial, and all secondary schools are to be kept by school authorities, Col. E. Mann Hartlett, state medical officer, said. This record is to be sent immediately to the state director of selective service when the youngster quits school, graduates, or attains his 18th birthday.

Col. Hartlett explained new regulations governing the drafting of all registrants in "tentative 1-A," saying that local boards thruout Illinois are adopting the new policies. Each registrant is required to fill out form 210, known as an identification-verification card, and form 211, known as the educational-verification card.

Draft directors send copies of forms 210 and 211 to state safety and public welfare directors for checking, Col. Hartlett said. He added that the records are to be sent to local boards 24 hours before the men are called for induction examinations.

MIDWEST TRADE CHIEFS MEET IN 25TH CONVENTION

MacLeay Outlines Needs for Area After War.

BY PHILIP HAMPSON.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 17.—Some 500 representatives of commerce, industry, and agriculture from 23 states in the nation's vast midcontinent area assembled in St. Louis today for the 25th annual convention of the Mississippi Valley association.

The convention will have two major objectives, said Lachlan MacLeay, president, [1] to do all it can to help win the war as speedily as possible and [2] to start laying plans for a post-war program which will maintain the midcontinent's dominant economic position in the nation's economy.

Puts Domestic Needs First.

"Our first job is to win the war quickly," said MacLeay, "and our second is to be prepared to take care of our midcontinent people after the war. Our first duty must be to look after our own economic problems before we take on outside obligations in foreign lands."

MacLeay said that a fundamental program for the midcontinent region, which embraces the area from the Rockies to the Appalachians and from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico, should include the following points:

1. Preserve and encourage private industry; eliminate so far as possible all governmental operations.

2. Encourage industry to centralize wherever economically feasible.

3. Develop to the fullest midcontinent trade relations with Central and South American nations.

Wants War Plants Kept.

MacLeay said the association insists that the vast war plants set up in the middle west be kept after the war. So far as possible they should be sold or leased to private enterprise. Those plants which industry cannot absorb should be maintained in the event of another emergency such as the present. Had we not scrapped many plants after the first World war we would be in much better shape now, he said.

"We should encourage the Latin American countries to exploit products which do not compete with our own," he continued. "We should buy from them where possible as many goods as we can so as to create a two way trade street.

"We believe that South Africa after the war will become a very productive territory for midcontinent trade and industry. There already has been established a splendid steamship service which will operate out of New Orleans and other gulf ports to Cape Town and the eastern South African coast. Another New Orleans steamship line has asked for a permit to operate to the west coast of South Africa.

Urges Use of Farm Products.

"After the war Australia will have a new conception of the United States and that nation should offer us fine trade opportunities."

MacLeay said that midcontinent agriculture should be encouraged by industry which should use more of its products. Grain should be used for the manufacture of synthetic rubber after the war, thereby helping to conserve petroleum reserves, he added.

The association's flood control committee today went on record opposing creation of more regional controls such as the Tennessee valley authority. It wants all flood control to be administered by the army engineers who would build and operate all multiple purpose dams.

FIRE LOSSES DURING SEPTEMBER HIGHEST FOR MONTH SINCE '32

New York, Oct. 17 (AP).—National fire losses in September were estimated at $26,488,000, 29 per cent higher than in September, 1942, and highest for any September since 1932, the National Board of Fire Underwriters announced today.

FREELY FLOWING DOLLAR TERMED NEED OF WORLD

U. S. Report Calls It Prosperity Cue.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17 (AP).—American dollars flowing freely and steadily both at home and back and forth across the seas can create and preserve world prosperity, the commerce department said in a 216 page pamphlet, "The United States in the World Economy," issued today.

It said the first requisite is domestic prosperity to encourage a flow of dollars abroad thru purchases and investments, but added:

"Of even greater importance than the general level of the flow of dollar payments is the need for continuity and regularity in our foreign economic policy and in the actual behavior of our international transactions."

Suggests Tariff Cuts.

Assuming a period of brisk two way dollar flow immediately after the war, the pamphlet urged a "sound international investment program together with a reduction in American trade barriers."

"It would be tragic indeed," it said, "if the United States [later] were to permit another abrupt drop in the supply of dollars, whether wilfully thru increased trade restrictions, carelessly thru the misbehavior of foreign investment, or involuntarily thru the improper functioning of the domestic economy."

The booklet described the "unfortunate results" of investment policies after the last war. Responsibility for development of more satisfactory reconstruction and development investment programs, it said, "will doubtless be borne chiefly by the governments concerned, and much of the capital may have to be provided thru official agencies.

Backs International Control.

"Certainly the methods of foreign bond flotation employed in the twenties would be both unacceptable to the individual investor and undesirable in the interest of international stability."

Asserting the most promising outlet for private capital appears to be in direct investments, the publication gave support to the idea of "appropriate financial and managerial participation by nationals of borrowing countries."

CRAMP SHIP YARD STRIKERS VOTE WORK FOR WEEK

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 17 (AP).—Members of local 42, Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers [CIO] voted today to return to work at Cramp's shipyard tomorrow, ending a strike which began Friday and resulted, the company said, in a nearly complete halt of ship construction.

A majority of union members attending a special meeting of the local voted to resume work for one week while a committee negotiates with the company. Some speakers urged that the union immediately file notice of intention to strike under terms of the Smith-Connally act.

Philip Van Gelder, international secretary-treasurer of the union, had said that the strike "was provoked in the first instance by the company discharge of a union shop steward."

TRUCKERS WILL HEAR COL. DEWEY AND GEN. WYLIE

Panel discussions and addresses by government and military officials on trucking problems comprise the schedule for the three day conference of the American Trucking Associations, Inc., beginning tomorrow in the Hotel Sherman. Meeting with the truck men will be the association's contract and common carrier divisions, as well as the Truck Trailer Manufacturer's association.

Brig. Gen. Robert H. Wylie, acting chief of transportation, transportation corps, army service forces, will address the opening session. Later speakers will include Col. Bradley Dewey, federal rubber director; Joseph B. Eastman, director, office of defense transportation; and Col. W. J. Williamson, chief, traffic control division, transportation corps.

Plate and Sheet Demand Delays Other Steel Output

Cleveland, O., Oct. 17 (AP).—Directives on plates and sheets are increasing, dislocating some other products to push production of flat-rolled items to the limit, the magazine Steel said today. Delivery promises on plates and sheets have become so extended that buyers take little interest in future shipments, due to consumers' inability to plan so far ahead and to the impossibility of obtaining allotment numbers, the trade publication reported.

NEWS OF FINANCE AND COMMERCE

SEC INVESTING FIRM SUIT MAY BE POSTPONED

Settlement Without Trial Sought.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 17 [Special].—Trial attorneys in the legal battle between Investors' Syndicate and the securities and exchange commission tonight were awaiting word from SEC headquarters at Philadelphia which would call off the trial scheduled to begin in federal court here tomorrow. Negotiations for a settlement out of court have been under way several weeks.

Should a basis of settlement be agreed upon, attorney will ask Judge Gunnar H. Norbye for a 10 day postponement to give them time to work out full details. Thereafter the agreement, stipulation or whatever form the settlement takes, would close the biggest case yet brought by the SEC against any securities firm.

Sales Practices Attacked.

Sought by SEC in the court action is a permanent injunction against sales practices on which the government agency frowns. The allegations in the 16 counts of the complaint range from gross misconduct to misuse of the war bond campaign and violation of the securities and investment company acts of 1933, 1934, and 1940.

Solvency of the company or the two subsidiaries involved—Investors Mutual, Inc., and Investors Syndicate of America, Inc.—is not questioned.

Should the "peace" negotiations fail, trial is expected to last at least six weeks.

"Teams Get Depositions."

The government has subpenaed more than 100 witnesses and depositions have been taken from another 100 or so holders of certificates issued by one or more of the three concerns.

Two "teams" comprising an attorney from SEC and one from Investors Syndicate have covered 19 states since Sept. 20 getting these depositions.

UTILITIES SHOW EARNINGS GAINS OVER YEAR AGO

Electric Power & Light corporation and United Gas corporation, both units in the Electric Bond and Share company system, yesterday rereported larger net earnings for the three months ended Aug. 31. Electric Power and Light and subsidiaries had consolidated net income of $1,149,022 against $615,246 a year ago. United Gas reported consolidated profit of $1,127,740 against $823,976 a year earlier.

Profit of Electric Power & Light alone was $288,122 for the period, against $170,403 in the 1942 period. United Gas reported company profit alone was $1,122,588 against $868,853 a year earlier.

IBA Will Hear Vinson at 3 Day N. Y. Meeting

The Investment Bankers Association of America will hold a conference on war and post-war financing in New York Nov. 3, 4, and 5, Jay N. Whipple, president, announced yesterday. The principal speaker will be Fred M. Vinson, director of economic stabilization.

Weighs 500 Tons

Schenectady, N. Y., Oct. 17 (AP).—A million pound electric motor, described by the General Electric company as the most powerful in the world, has been completed, the company announced today.

The motor, which the company said could hoist a destroyer out of the water and up the height of a 15 story building in a minute, has been shipped to the Defense Plant corporation steel mill at New Geneva, Utah, where it will cut 20,000 pound steel slabs 200 feet long for ship yards and other war industries.

Motor 44 Feet Long.

The motor will turn out more power, either alternating or direct current, than any other motor, when its 7,000 horsepower is applied at the speed of 25 revolutions per minute.

If a cable could be applied to the motor, which is 44 feet long, 16 feet in diameter and stands 13 feet above the floor level, it would lift 1,350 tons, the weight of a four stack destroyer, at the rate of 200 feet per minute, G. E. engineers said.

Moved in Nine Freight Cars.

The motor has no continuous shaft, but instead has two 3,500 horsepower rotors built up on hollow cylindrical bodies, coupled at the center and provided with flanges at the ends. To these flanges are bolted shafts of sufficient size to support the rotor in its bearings and transmit the driving power.

A 7,000 kilowatt, six unit flywheel generator set will power the motor, which required nine freight cars for shipment.

Made by Lycoming

A completely self-contained power unit that weighs less than one-third as much as existing engines of comparable output used in buses and other motor driven vehicles currently operating on American highways has been developed by Lycoming division of the Aviation corporation, William F. Wise, executive vice president, announced yesterday.

Described as a "packaged power" unit, it combines a six-cylinder, horizontally opposed aircraft engine with all accessories, plus a clutch and flywheel, into a single, self-cooled package, the announcement said.

Unaffected by Temperature.

Air-cooled, the company said it is immune to temperature extremes, such as those encountered during winter highway operation in northern Canada or the high heat of southwestern deserts. It said the unit has been operated successfully under test conditions at 120 degrees Fahrenheit above zero and at 20 degrees below zero.

The new engine has a dry weight of 755 pounds and develops 162 net horse power at 2,800 revolutions per minute on 73 octane fuel at sea level atmosphere.

Weight Reduction Forecast.

The principal element of the cooling system is a cast aluminum fan, or blower, mounted integrally with the flywheel and having an outside diameter of 28¼ inches. The 16 blades of this fan have airfoil shape.

Later developments in this "packaged power" field already have forecast further considerable reduction in both weight and cooling system power consumption, Lycoming engineers said.

SWPC Eases War Loans to Small Plants

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17 [Special].—A new arrangement whereby loans up to $25,000 will be more readily available to small business concerns producing war materials or essential civilian goods was announced today by the Smaller War Plants corporation.

The plan, effective Nov. 1, gives the SWPC's 14 regional loan agents authority to lend up to $25,000 without consulting Washington. They will enter into repurchase agreements up to 100 per cent with banks where the banks agree to close and service the loans. Interest rate will be 4 per cent on that portion of the loan carried at the risk of SWPC, and the banks will pay 1 per cent annually to SWPC as a repurchase charge.

SWPC said the operator of a small business could apply for a loan of $25,000 or less to the SWPC agent in his district. The applicant would be asked to designate a specific bank, and he and the SWPC agent would arrange for the loan. The applicant would have to pay any out of pocket expenses necessary to closing the loan.

LEVY ON SALES URGED IN PLACE OF VICTORY TAX

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17 (AP).—Despite strong administration and CIO opposition, Rep. A. Willis Robertson [D., Va.] announced today he would propose to congress a 10 per cent national retail sales tax linked with repeal of the 5 per cent victory tax.

A member of the tax drafting house ways and means committee, Robertson said his sales levy proposal would exempt all government purchases and all purchases for production purposes.

"The anti-inflationary effect of a sales tax has been fully demonstrated by the surge of new buying in the last two weeks, stimulated by the proposal of new consumer taxes," he said. "People do advance buying to escape a sales tax and curtail subsequent buying to evade it."

RATIONED LARD USED TO EASE SOAP SCARCITY

Industry May Get Vast Quantity.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17 (AP).—Lard—a food item under civilian rationing since April—now is to be used in the manufacture of soap, to head off soap rationing.

Lard supplies have reached a point where government officials consider it advisable to so divert substantial quantities and about 100 million pounds have been allotted to soap makers during the last few weeks by the war food administration.

Use Normally Very Small.

Lard normally is used only to a very limited extent in soapmaking or other industrial products.

Plans are being made to make additional quantities, possibly as much as 400 million pounds, available for soap during the next 12 months. Such allocations would depend on the availability of supplies to meet present civilian ration allowances and military and lend-lease requirements.

For a while the government prohibited the use of lard in soapmaking. A shortage of tallow and the imported oils normally used began to be reflected in a shortage of soap in grocery stores and complaints from housewives.

3 Pct. of Output Allotted.

Taking stock of the fats and oils supply situation, the WFA decided to lift the bar against the use of lard and to give soapmakers permission to buy fixed quantities so that they might again increase their output of soap.

The amount already allotted the soapmakers represents about 3 per cent of the present annual rate of lard production. Officials expect production to total 3 billion pounds during the next 12 months. Civilians would get about 1 billion 700 million pounds under rationing, with the rest going for military, lend-lease and industrial uses.

The common-sense solution to any money shortage is a short-term loan. It allows a "breathing spell" in which to adjust expenses to fit income. Right now, for instance, living costs are up and it is becoming increasingly difficult to make ends meet. A loan from Commonwealth will "tide you over" until you get adjusted to these new war time conditions. Monthly rate 3% on balance of $150 or less, and 2½% on that part of the unpaid balance over $150.
